GAME WARDENS MAKE ARRESTS

There has been a great deal of complaint for several years about the violation of the ducking laws in the lower section of this county, where ducks are very plentiful. On Tuesday night of this week Federal Game Warden, Thomas S. Bloxson, accompanied by game wardens Joseph Watson and Whaland went to Eastern Neck Island narrows and arrested Messrs John Nehus and his brother, Henry Nehus, of that section and J. Fred Bolts, Fred Rosengarm, George C. Rothe and A. E. Sandermast, of Baltimore county, for shooting ducks at night. The above will be tried in the Federal Court in Baltimore, the date for which has not yet been set.

BUFFALO RETURN BACK HOME

Reports that the 1,600 buffalo transferred to the Alberta hinterland Canada last spring have shown their heels to the native wild wood bisom and are stampeding back a thousand miles south to their old home in the buffalo park at Wainwright, Alta., were declared unfounded by D. H. Christie, expert of the federal department of the enterior who has returned from the Slavo river country.

"Experiment of moving the herd of prairie buffalo to the Fort Smith preserve has been successful," said Mr. Christie. "The animals have had no difficulty in acclimating themselves. They are perfectly contented and have made no effort to return south. Moreover the prairie buffalo have mingled successfully with the native wood bison. Rangers in the north report that the herds of both types are grazing peacefully side by side on the 10,000 square miles of sanctuary provided for them.

"Although the prairie buffalo are slightly smaller than the wood bison of the north they have not been forced to fight for their existence against the stronger animals. Success of the first shipment makes it probable that the surplus stock from the Wainwright herd will be sent to Northern Alberta every spring."

The transfer of the prairie buffalo, Mr. Christie pointed out, was necessary because the government herd at Wainwright has outgrown the preserve and the rapid development of farming in the area around has made it impossible to obtain additional grazing space.

GALENA

Mrs. Samuel Caldwell is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gale are visiting their son near Washington.

SANTA APPROVES A CHRISTMAS GIFT

Santa Claus has been down a great many chimneys since he started business and he is intimately acquainted with a large number of people. He knows that the best kinds of gifts are those which please the whole family, and which bring the excitement and enjoyment of Christmas every week. That is why he looks so jolly when he receives hundreds of subscriptions to The Youth's Companion with which to fill his pack. And being wise from long experience, he knows that people are likely to overdo things around Christmas, so he chuckles when he sticks a Companion into the top of a stocking. "Be as greedy as you like," he thinks, "the more, the better for you."

The 52 issues of The Youth's Companion for 1926 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts, and fun. Just send your order to the address below and Santa will take care of delivering the paper to your home or to the home of a friend. Subscribers will receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1926, and
2. The remaining issues of 1925.

All for only $2.

3. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions.

Both publications, only $2.50.
