THE FLAX MEN MEET.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN BY LOCAL FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN

A meeting was held in the Court House, Chestertown, Saturday, with 38 persons present, to look into the prospect of growing flax. Among those present were farmers, business men and visitors interested in handling the product.

A committee was appointed, composed of H. B. Derrick, chairman; W. B. Copper, E. T. Massey, Edgar R. Pennington and William T. Brown, who will make a thorough investigation, dealing with the growing and marketing of the flax. One of the steps taken will be a trip to sections where flax has been grown, and talks with farmers who have grown the crop.

The proposition, as presented, was that a minimum of 4,000 acres must be grown within a radius of ten miles of Chestertown, where the mills will be located. The price to be paid will be $20 per ton, and the average crop is between 2 and 3 tons per acre.

The growing of flax is similar to that of wheat except that it is planted in April and harvested in August, the machinery for harvesting to be furnished by the buyer.

If this proposition proves a success it will mean a new industry in Chestertown and will revolutionize farming in this section. The buyers contracts are to be secured by a Philadelphia Trust Co., and local banks.

The above named committee will meet on Monday or Tuesday of next week with Mr. Oldenburg, Extension Agronomist of the Univesity of Maryland.

HERBERT E. PERKINS, Attorney.

SPORTS OF THE WEEK

BASKETBALL SEASON TO OPEN DECEMBER 11—OTHER NOTES OF THE SPORTS REALM

The basketball season at Washington College will begin on December 11 when Blue Ridge College will be the opponents of the local collegians. This game is always interesting. Washington will be without the service of McGran, Bankert and probably Dumschoot. Arnold College will play here on December 16. This is Carrington's team, of near Waterbury, which gave Washington such a hard game last year. Carrington's young brother who is a Freshman here, will probably oppose the veteran Carrington.

Dumschoot, star basketball player and around athletic at Washington College, received word this week that his father, who resides in Waterbury, Conn., was dead. Dumschott left immediately for home. We trust conditions are such that he will return at an early date. He was one of the best athletes and cleanest sports who ever played at Washington.

KENT PEOPLE AROUSED

REPORT THAT COLORED BOY HAD MADE ATTEMPT AT ASSAULT CAUSES SHERIFF TO TAKE QUICK ACTION

Kent County was stirred considerably on Monday when a report was circulated that Wilbur Barnes, 15 year-old colored boy, had attempted to assault the 9-year-old daughter of the late Aaron Taylor, of Quaker Neck. In the attempt he was unsuccessful.

It seems that the child had been in the habit of going to the farm of Mr C .C. Brown every day for milk where the negro worked. On this morning the negro came down stairs and attacked the child, who fled into the yard and screamed for help. The negro's two younger brothers came to the child's aid and gave her assistance.

She was somewhat bruised and badly frightened, but upon examination by Dr. H. P. Copeland, it was found that she had not been severely injured.

Sheriff Goodman arrested the boy and placed him in safe quarters. However, on Monday evening, after the sheriff had received a number of reports to the effect that there were threats from several quarters against the prisoner, Sheriff Goodman, upon the advise of State's Attorney Beck and other level-headed men of the community, put the negro in an automobile and quietly carried him to Baltimore.

This quick action the part of Kent county officials put an end to all rumors of violence at once.
