WEDDINGS

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Roland Homer Crew, of this county, Miss Margaret Read of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. Due to the very recent death of the bride's uncle, the wedding was witnessed only by the immediate family and solemnized at her home November 23. After a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Crewe left for New Orleans and other southern points. They will be "At Home" in Huntingdon after February first.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mrs H. Wilcox Read, of Huntingdon, and well known in society circles there has several times been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Roseberry. The groom is a son of Mrs Sara C. Crewe, of Bayside, Betterton, and is a graduate of Washington and Swarthmore Colleges and a post graduate of the University of Paris, France.

A very pretty but quiet weeding took place in St. James Catholic Church, Galena, Md., Monday, Nov. 16, when Rev. John A. Daily united in matrimony Miss Anna T. Conway, of New York City, and Mr. Samuel F. Dunn, of near Massey.

The bridal couple was accompanied by Mrs. M. P. Dunn as Maid of Honor and Mr. Thomas Conway, brother of the bride, acted as best man. After a wedding dinner at the home of Mr and Mrs. M. P. Dunn, the bride and groom motored to Elkton and caught the 5.30 train for Atlantic City and other points of interest. After Dec 31, they will reside near Georgetown Md.

On Saturday the 28th of Nov. Mr. and Mrs. Heinfield gave a reception and supper in honor of their eldest son, Andrew and his bride, who was Miss Anna Dowling. There were many present from Baltimore and Rock Hall and a very pleasant evening was spent with music, dancing and games. At ten o'clock all were invited to the dining room where ice cream and all kinds of refreshments were served.

The presents were both numerous and beautiful. At eleven p. m. all departed wishing the young couple many years of added bliss.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday, Nov. 28 at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira T. Leager, of Chestertown, when their daughter, Iris, became the bride of Mr. J. Rodney West, of Wilmington.

D. A. R. MAKES SUGGESTIONS

As we near Christmas time the subject of the Community Christmas Tree becomes one of interest.

The destruction of trees every year is appalling and those who study conservation and thrift have been considering how to use the trees and also how to save the trees.

Old Kent Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, endorse a plan of the transplanting a live tree to some selected spot to be used as a community tree.

The Chapter hopes the Town Commissioners and the Business Men's Association will give some consideration to this subject.

This tree would not only beautify the place where it is put but would serve as a constant reminder of the community spirit and it would tend to inspire the children to care for it and protect it and all other trees.

Mr. William G. Gunning, for many years in charge of the Culinary Department of Washington College, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Powell, in Atlanta Georgia, on Thanksgiving Day, aged 75 years. Mr. Gunning was a gentleman of exceptional ability
