Mr. and Mrs. Barnard Jones and daughter left Sunday where they had been spending Christmas Holidays with Mrs. Jones parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell. They motored to Boston, Mass., where Mr. Jones is employed by the Dupont Co.

Mr. Scott and John Woodside, of West Chester, Pa., spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Scott.

Mr. Andrew Woodall, of Wilmington spent the holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burney, of Baltimore spent a few days with her sister Mrs. James Scotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gutherie spent the week end with his parents at Kenton.

We are very sorry to lose Mr. Leo Cale who has moved to Millington where he will conduct a grocery store for Bottom and VanDyke.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Wood, of Wilmington sent a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wood.

LOCAL MATTER

—Trappers of Kent have begin to catch the wily muskrat.

—Wesley Gordon, colored, died at his home in Chestertown on Monday.

—Considerable money was made from the holly industry in Kent this season.

—A pair of oxen passed through Easton last week, the first seen there in years.

—The ferries were loaded with Christmas home comers during the week end.

—The Turner's Creek School Building will be altered to suit necessary conditions.

—The residence of Mr. Charles N. Satterfield has been completed and is a most attractive home.

—The annual Christmas dance at Washington College on Tuesday evening was a big success.

—Lyceum goers were delighted to see the dancing class of Miss Dorris Bell in action Thursday night.

—The local Chineman will visit China shortly. His business will be condcted by a cousin, whose young son will attend the school here.

—Dr. J. P. Franklin has submitted his report of work done in the county, which shows considerable activity and much good accomplished.

—Yesterday, Friday, was New Years day. We wish all our patrons, friends and public generally a Happy New Year.

—The Patrons Club of Kennedyville meets in the school house next Wednesday, Jan. 6th, at 3.30 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

—Kent experienced the coldest snap of the year, beginning on Sunday. The river is locked tightly by ice and promises to remain so for some time.

—Officials of the Claibourn-Annapolis Ferry have announced plans for having a new sixty car capacity, oil burning ferry to run between the two points.

—The curtain has fallen on the hunting season for 1925 and what few rabbits and birds remain alive will have a rest for the balance of the year.

—Frank Conner, a prosperous young farmer near Townsend, has bought from Robert Wallen his farm known as the Lamb farm, containing 258 acres, at private sale.

—We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to the dedication of the New Caroline High School at Denton on Monday next, Jan. 4, 1926, at 8 o'clock p. m.

—Mr. Wm. C. Sutton will do the plumbing work at Firemen's Hall. The members of the fire company have recently presented the president, Mr. W m.G. Smyth, with a large hand bag.

—Massey School, of which Miss Evelyn Peacock is principal, held a most enjoyable Christmas entertainment last week; a large crowd was present and the pupils acted their parts nicely.

Buick Master Six Seven Passenger Sedan

People who look for and appreciate comfort in a motor car are invited to try the added comfort in the Better Buick.

The Better Buick is big enough and balanced correctly to carry itself well on any road, but not too big to be ungainly or hard to handle.

Seating space is generous. Leg room is ample enough for tall people to relax.

Cushions are deep and yielding and tilted to a restful angle.

Rear springs are Buick cantilevers, which smooth out road inequalities far better than any other type. Special size low-pressure tires are standard equipment on all models.

Your first long ride in the Better Buick will show you how restful miles can be.
