THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as second-class matter.

THE NUMEROUS FIRES that have occured during the past few weeks have kept the Volunteer Fire Co., of Chestertown busy. They are equal however, to the demands and have met every call with promptness and efficiency. Their services are required from far and near and they have rendered service this week from Rock Hall, this county, to Easton, in Talbot county. Ever ready and ever willing has been their attitude.

THE FORMING OF THE Del-mar-Va- Eastern Shore Association, whose purpose is to boost this peninsula, will necessitate active and cooperative work on the part of all local organizations. More than ever before will be the need of our business and farmer's organizations, church, school, and social clubs each working for their respective purposes while behind them all will be the machinery of this large parent organization grinding out our message to all sections of the country.

Whether Kent County gets its share of the benefits derived depends on the residents themselves. If the people of this peninsula get behind this new organization and boost it will do wonders, but it cannot function if we treat it with indifference and "let George do it."
