IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father, John Collison, who departed this life March 4, 1923.

It was on a Sunday evening,
We shall never forget the day,
When the Silent Reaper came
And took my dear father away.

We love him today, yes we love him,
Just as well as years ago,
And we miss him, oh, how we miss him!
Our hearts are aching so.
By his loving son and daughter-in-law.

Only to see you, dear grandfather;
Only to hear your sweet voice;
Even the faintest whisper
Would make our hearts rejoice.

Another year is closing!
Dear grandfather, can it be!
For in working or in praying,
Our thoughts are all of thee.
By his loving grandchildren, Gladys and Thelma.

"My, how old-fashioned!"

This couldn't be you. In everything—your clothing, your automobile, the home you live in—you demand the "latest."

And yet, thoroughly up-to-date in everything else, one point may have escaped you —the watch you wear.

Style in watches is as important nowadays as style in clothing. One cannot be really up-to-date and carry a watch as far behind the times as the lady in the picture.

Our extensive assortment of reliable watches dressed in the famous Wadsworth Cases will be a revelation to you of the part played by style in the modern watch.
