BASEBALL SEASON HERE

MANY CANDIDATES RESPOND TO CALL AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE

Baseball season has arrived at Washington College and Coach Kibler is encouraged by the large turnout of candidates for the Washington College nine about sixty-five aspirants for the team answering his call. Work has been started on reconditioning the diamond so that it is expected practice will begin in earnest by the first of next week.

Roger Smoot Conant and Cavanaugh will undoubtedly form a murderer's row par excellence this season, as all three youngsters are hitting the ball hard and often. Smoot is especially effective.

Cavanaugh is expected to cavort around the first-base position, although he is being pushed hard by Fitzpatrick, a southpaw. Seib and Galvin are battling it out for the midway sack, while Conant and Bozman are vieing with each other for the "hot corner" post. At short field Captain Atkins and Zizelman, the latter a product of Kingsley Prep, of Essex Falls, N. Y., seem to have the edge on the other aspirants.

Candidates for the outfield berths are most numerous but Smoot, Dumschott, Twilley and Mandrell seem to have the edge. Dean is also a likely looking youngster and may surprise the veterans. McGinnis, who has returned to Washington after an absence of a year, is also in the running.

Graduate Manager Howell has completed the final arrangements of his schedule of games for the season, which will open on April 9 with Blue Ridge College. The schedule as adopted is a representative one, giving the local squad an opportunity to meet practically all of the State teams. Twelve games have been arranged, as follows:

April 9—Blue Ridge, at Chestertown.
April 17—Calverton School, at Chestertown.
April 22—Maryland University, at College Park.
April 23—Mount St. Mary's, at Emmitsburg.
April 30—Loyola, at Chestertown.
May 8—Mount St. Mary's at Chestertown.
May 10—Georgetown University, at Washington.
May 11— United States Marines, at Quantico.
May 15—Maryland University, at Chestertown.
May 29—Blue Ridge, at New Windsor.
May 31—Western Maryland, at Chestertown.
June 12—Alumni, at Chestertown.

THERE ARE DOGS GALORE IN CHESTERTOWN

A LARGE NUMBER OF REGISTERED CANINES AND QUANTIES OF THE UNOFFICIAL VARIETy

Chestertown is fairly overrun with dogs. Every species, size, color, and age is variously represented, with the total result that not little skill must be exercised by pedestrians to escape conversion into tid bits auxiliary to Mr. Dog's regular breakfast.

But the kinds of dogs—bull dogs, black, white, and mixed bull terriers with ears, bull terriers without ears, bull terriers with ears and tails, bull terriers with ears with radically abbreviated tails, bull terriers without ears but with tails, bull terriers without either ears or tails, white bull terriers, black bull terriers, and mixed bull terriers— compose the principal branches of the bulldog family proper, although there are other dogs of a less aristocratic strain that bear a distressing resemblance to their more fortunate brethren. Oh, yes, there are both aristocratic and plebeian dogs. The former may be everywhere distinguished by their air of nonchalance.

Then there are "hound dawgs," of the type that was displayed upon extension postal cards and served as the inspiration for a song of excessive popularity. Pointers and setters and fox terriers, which last- named family may be classified similarly to that of the bull terrier ancestral arbor, age but a few among a number which precludes further description.

Of course these "dawgs" are not always good little "dawgs," and the county has adequately arranged a way to punish their sins when widely contrary to public dog policy. The most heinous offense a dog may committ is that of wandering around without a little brass pendant firmly attached thereto. This little piece of metal, which gives the dog his right of way, may be purchased, however upon pay- County Treasurer.

"Have a Camel"

These words are first call to the world's finest smoke

THE choicest tobaccos grown are bought for Camel cigarettes. Millions of dollars are spent every year to insure their uniform quality.

No money is spared in the making of Camels. The tobacco is cured carefully and aged long. The exclusive Camel blend of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos is the work of experts. The paper in which Camels are rolled is specially made in France to obtain the best. Nothing is too good or too expensive that will make Camels a better smoke. But not a cent is spent to doll up Camel cigarettes. No fancy tips or gay and wasteful wrappings. We believe that the smokers of America want smoking quality without frills.

Camels simply will not tire your taste or leave a cigaretty after-taste, no matter how liberally you smoke them!

"Have a Camel!" is the password to the quality cigarette, with all the quality in the tobacco.
