THE DAYS

By Arthur Eugene Smith

Days, like young eagles, from their eyrie look
Out on a world of varied light and shade.
They pass us single by the drowsy brook
That murmurs sweetly to the vernal glade:
They bring a wealth of sunshine to the street;
Bread, kingdoms, glory, to the learned and high;
And to the toiling millions' aching feet
And times of sorrow and of misery.
I watched the pageantry of summer hours.
And lifted to my lips their cup of wine;
And, lo, today had died among the flow'rs
Without a gift of peace, or smile benign;
But, far in space, within the heav'nly show'rs,
Beheld the stars, His silver tapers, shine!

A LITTLE FUN

Thrift

Two sweethearts of Chestertown were rambling round when they came to a movie.

The young man ran his eye over the front of the building. It rested on a title in large letters—"The Woman Pays."

"Jean," he said, 'I think we'll go in here."

Needed a Holiday

"My Word, I'm badly overworked."
"What are you doing "
"Oh, this and that."
When?"
"Now and then."
Where?"
"Here or there."
"Well, you must need a holiday."

No Good At All

"I tell you this medicine s equally as good for curing headaches as it is for curing chilblains, liver complaint or spinal meningitis."

"I don't doubt that for a minute. So's rain water."

Right

Teacher: "Willie, what is an alchol lamp?"

Willie: "That's Pop's eye when it has a dark circle around it."

Viewpoint

"Don't you think all these motor accidents are terrible?" Asked the coffee salesman in the Pullman smoker, looking up from his paper.

"I suppose so," assented his casual acquaintance, the casket salesman. "But," he added, "it's worse for business when people are lost at sea."

Revenge Is Sweet

Voice over Phone: "How much is coal now "

Dealer: "Eighteen-ninety a ton."

Voice: "Ha-ha! I gotta oil burner."

Alright Right

"What's a super-man, pop?"

"A woman, son."

Appropriate

A colored minister was endeavoring to complete in dramatic style his sermon on the benefits of prohibition. In conclusion he said:

"Now, all de brethren what believes ev'ry drop o' liquor should be poured into de rivah will please come for'ward, while de choir sings a suitable selection."

And the choir responded promptly by singing: "Shall We Gather at the River?"

THE HEIGHT OF LAZINESS.

Mr. Green was wandering down a country road when he saw a man watching a dog. The dog was sitting beside a hedge, crying piteously.

Mr. Green was tender-hearted, and asked what was the matter.

"O, he's just lazy," said the man.

"Lazy!" said Mr. Green. 'But laziness surely wouldn'nt make him cry like that!'

"Well, it does ," said the man, "because that dog is sitting on a thistle and is too darned lazy to move."
