LOCAL POLITICS in Kent, while quiet on the surface is quite active under cover, both factions jockeying to some extent. It is expected definite action will be taken during the April term of Court which begins Monday. For yeare and years the April term of court has been looked upon as a developer of local politics. This can be accounted for in a large measure by the fact that large numbers of out of town people are usually in attendance at court. It is quite evident that both wings of the Democratic party will put up a full ticket at the September primaries. There is but little doubt that Senator William B. Copper and States-Attorney S. Scott Beck will be the opposing candidates for the State Senate and will head the two opposing factions.

NOTICE TO OYSTERMEN AND LESSEES

In our bulletin of March 29 we gave notice seed oysters could be obtained from certain tonging areas, one of which was THAT PORTION OF CHOPTANK RIVER LYING SOUTHWEST OF A LINE DRAWN FROM HURST CREEK TO HAMBROOK'S BAR BEACON, AND KNOWN AS THE RESTRICTED ZONE.

This Department has decided that owng to the number of other natural oyster rocks set aside for seed purposes, it would be advisable not to include this among those where oysters could be removed and sold for seed purposes. Therefore, the area mentioned above will not be opened on April 15 as formerly advertised.

Carl Laemmle presents
MAY McAVOY, in
"THE MAD WHIRL"
With JACK MULHALL, MYRTLE STEDMAN, and GEO. FAWCETT.

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture
MARION DAVIES, in
Lights of Old Broadway
With CONRAD NAGEL and a Great Cast.

When Broadway was a pasture and 42nd street a lane—Those were the days! Flapperless, ginless, jazzless—but a stirring time of real romance flowering amidst the conflicts and passions of a great metropolis in the making.

Marion Davies, in her greatest triumph, shows herself a superb comedienne—She'll make you road with glee, then move you to tears.

Also Western and Comedy Short Subjects.

This is no ordinary comedy. Here is farce of the highest order with its scintillating humor magnified by its transference to the screen.

Many critics say it is twice as pleasing as "The Freshman" Don't miss it.

The Savers Always Win!

Old "cox" Expenses may shout louder and he may get more work out of his oarsmen, but his boat "Extravagance" always loses. That's a real certainty. No shell in any stream of life can carry a great heavy coxswain like "Expenses" to victory. It's impossible!
