Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realise what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

THE ROUNDED LIFE

By Edgar A Guest

When you have done with your business and ended your battle for gain,
When you have come to your glory and gathered the price of your pain,
What have you captured that's lasting more than the love of your own,
The love of your wife and your children, the love of the friends you have known

Give heed to the life you are building, for in truth 'tis a life that you build;
Is it a temple of gladness, with pictures and memories filled,
Or is it a sepulchre ghastly, a tomb that is silent and cold,
With nothing to warm you or cheer you but columns of silver and gold?

You were born to be strong, to be happy, to laugh and to sing through the years;
You were born to know life in its fulness, with all of its heartachs and tears;
You were born to know roses and blossoms and the numberless pleasures of earth;
So stunt not your life as the miser, who reckons in money his worth.

For when age shall descend with its shadows and the end of the battle is seen,
You will find the brave heart and the gentle as rich as the richest has been.
For his life shall be blended with beauty, he shall treasures of memory own,
While the salve to his millions of dollars shall sit at his desk all alone.

Take time for the pleasure of living, take time to be friendly and kind;
Be more than a maker of money, grow richer in heart and in mind;
Be a glorious comrade and neighbor, know the meaning of laughter and tears;
Live bravely and gladly and fully, and you will not have wasted the years.

SWEET POTATOES PROFITABLE

WONDERFUL TALES COME FROM DOWN SHORE GROWERS

Wonderful stories are being told of the profits made from sweet potatoes during the last season. A school teacher, who spent his leisure hours in a patch of three and one-half acres and selling the output of the patch for $1,795.20, is cited as an evidence of the possibilities of the Eastern Shore.

The teacher, Raymond Parker, owning an eighteen-acre farm on the edge of the sweet potato belt, about one mile from Salisbury, planted three and one-half acres in "sweets." His net yield was 1,056 bushels, for which he received $170 a bushels for his season's work. He averaged 302 bushels to the acre. His land returned him $513.40 an acre.

Minos E. Culver, Laurel, Del., netted 225 bushels to the acre. For 100 acres he received, at $2.35 a bushel, $52,875 at the farm. Each acre yielded Mr. Culver $528.75. The Culver farm is located at the upper end of the belt.

On the western side of the belt Claude H. Taylor, of Rockawalkin, Wicomico county, set out thirty acres of sweet potatoes and harvested 9,500 bushels or about 318 bushels an acre. He sold them at an average price of $1.45 a bushels, or $13,300 for the crop, giving him $461.10 an acre.
