LOCAL MATTERS

State motor police will wage a war upon glaring lights on autos.

—Betterton and Tolchester will open for the summer season today.

—The Tolchester Company will begin their summer schedule today.

—The By-Kota Club Bazaar held at the Eliason building on Saturday last proved a big success. The sum of $162.52 was cleared.

—Beginning Tuesday, June 1st, the Chestertown Public Library will be open every Tuesday and Saturday morning from 10 o'clock until one and Saturday evenings from 6.30 to 8 p. m.

—A polo game between Washington and the Eastern Shore Polo Association will be played in the field of Mr. Ramie Zeisal, in Queen Annes, near Chestertown on Monday afternoon. A big crowd will, no doubt, be present.

—As will be seen by advertisement in another column of this paper, The Tolchester Company will start their summer schedule on Saturday, May 29th.

—We very much regret the illness of Mr. James Woodall at his home in Georgetown. He had a stroke on his right side on Tuesday and has been confined to his bed since.

—A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in the Health Center, Chestertown, on Monday, June 7th, at 10.30 a. m. Those who wish to attend should see their physician and obtain permission.

—The American Legion will observe Decoration Day by placing flowers on the graves of those who lost their lives during the late war. All Legion men are requested to be at the Imperial Hotel at 10 a. m.

—Misses Elizabeth and Martha Trew have rented the second floor apartment in the Custom House, recently vacated by Miss Mary Lynn.

—Mr. Walter U. Lusby has sold his "Tolchester Farms" situated on Chesapeake Bay, adjoining the Beach, to a Wilmington buyer for $45,000.

The Alumni Banquet of the Chestertown school will be held at the Chestertown High school on Thursday, June 17th. Miss Mary Power, president of the association has called several meetings and plans are well under way for a good program.

—The Eastern Shore Forest, No. 53, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, held their May ceremorial in the armory here Tuesday night. The visiting "Cedars" came mostly from Salisbury, accompanied by a band a big parade, unique in many respects, was held. Fourteen new members were initiated.

—In referring to the Lindsay case in our issue of last week, it was stated that the Shore Transit Co. was represented at the hearing in Baltimore before Judge Ulman by Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., and Harrison W. Vickers, Esqs. This was an error as Messrs Russell and Vickers were only witnesses in the case.

—In the observance of Decoration Day the following stores in Chestertown will be closed: Bordley & Son, G. E. Noland, H. B. Rote, A. L. Sparks, J. S. Kreeger, Vansant & Newsome, W. P. Newnam, Crooks Stores, American Store, John Bartley, Owen C. Smith, H. F. Jefferson, W. O. Bringman, A & P Tea Co., Oriole Shoe Store, B. L. Bonnett, M. Halbert, T. C. Hadaway.

—The Delco-Light did record breaking business in April, shipping $7,500,000 worth of its products. More than 500 freight cars were required to handle the light plants and electric refrigerators turned out in that period. Before the end of 1926 the company expects to reach easily the $8,000,000 mark set it by E. G. Biechler, president and general manager. Mr George W. Baldwin is the local dealer for this section. He is kept quite busy installing new plants. The demand for the Delco is become greater each year and its users are much pleased with it.
