THE ABOVE TICKET contains the names of candidates of that wing of the Democratic party in this county to which we have been allied for many years; in fact we are among what may be termed charter members of this organization. There are some names on this ticket who have formerly been opposed to our way of thinking, but for various resons have changed and are now casting their lot with this faction which we represent and which is now THE REGULAR STATE and COUNTY ORGANIZATION. The personal of the above ticket, some of whom have served the county faithfully and well in the past, is well known to most of our people and of whom we will have something to say as the campaign progresses.

REPRESENTATIVE MILLARD E. TYDINGS, of Harford County, has filed his papers as Democratic Candidate for the United States Senatorship. Mr. Tydings has the backing, it is said of the Democratic Organization of Baltimore City. Those who are active in promoting Mr. Tyding's Candidacy say they have met with satisfactory responses from the counties. Mr. Tydings can count on the support of the Regular State and County Organization ticket in this county.

BROOKHART WINS IOWA SENATOREHIP

The large majority of Brookhart over Senator Cummins, one of the old guard, shows that the farmer is not satisfied with the way farm relief measures are being handled by the powers that be in Washington. As the farming industry is the basis of a country's prosperity, the present depression of farming conditions is the gravest problem that the country has to face and legislation for its relief should be the first duty of Congress. Subsidizing the farmer may be more an evil than a good but if the high tariff walls were cut down so the farmer could have an outlet for his surplus products in foreign markets where they are now shut out by reprisal tariff, it would show that the Republican party is a friend to the farmer. Until that is done the farmer has every reason to doubt the sincerity of any promises made them by that party, and he has inquestionably spoken his dissatisfaction at the polls in Iowa.

—The Democratic State Central Committee will meet in Baltimore on Wednesday of next week. A number from here will attend.

—Chicken thieving continues in the upper section of Kent county. It looks like the work of an organized gang whose plans are so well laid that the authorities have been unable to make any arrests. Four farmers in the vicinity of Kennedyville suffered heavy losses by the thieves on Tuesday evening of this week.
