THE REGULAR Organization ticket contains the names of some of our best and most representative citizens, and should, therefore, merit the support of the voters of this county, which we are sure it will do. Most of these candidates are men of experience and if nominated and elected will serve the taxpayers faithfully and well.

THE FORMING OF a fire company band in Chestertown will fill a need that has long been lacking. A band is one of the great asset to a community and while a number of bands have been formed, there has never been one that has been backed up by as strong an organization the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. This company has succeeded in all projects thus for attempted and we feel that this band will be a success as we consider this organization one of the strongest in Chestertown for the betterment of the community.

THE ETHIOPIAN AND THE LEOPARD

Our contemporary, the Kent News, seems to object to the ticket headed by W. B. Copper for State Senator taking the name of "The Regular Organization Ticket" and refers all interested to Jeremiah 13-23, which reads: "Can the ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil." In answer to the question "can the ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots?" we must confess we never thought it could be done until four years ago when Senator Wm. Cabell Bruce was a candidate for the U. S. Senate on the "Regular State Organization ticket" which ticket was supported by Senator Wm. B. Copper and his friends, together with the late Senator W. W. Beck, while David J. Lewis and State Senator Wm. I. Norris were candidates on Independent tickets. The "ethiopian," who, for the sake of illustration, we would call our worthy contemporary, the News and many of its friends, changed their "skin" and supported Lewis, while some of the so-called organization leaders, the "leopards," changed their "spots" and supported Norris. It may be well to add that it was, probably, the result of that campaign that the "purity" and "power" of the word "organization" became so forcibly impressed upon our contemporary as to inspire their editorial comment last week.

PERSONAL REFERENCE TO SOME CANDIDATES

THE POLITICAL SITUATION in this county is becoming more and more interesting each week. The tickets of the factions of the Democratic party are now complete, and the candidates are actively at work, each presenting their claims to the voters. From time immemorial a Senator has served two sessions in the Maryland Senate until by virtue of a proclamation which was submitted to the voters of the State and by a majority vote was adopted in 1922, a law was passed by the legislature creating fewer elections in this State which law gave but one session of the legislature to all Senators who were elected in 1923. Senator W. B. Copper happened to be one of the senators elected in that year therefore he served but one session and is, we contend, entitled to renomination and reelection. He made an enviable record in the senate in 1924 and is seeking a renomination at the coming primaries in September and is making his campaign on his record in the past session and on the claim of the past custom of two sessions. Senator Copper's stand on the many public questions involving large interests to the State and its citizens is well defined. He is regarded by the State administration and by his colleagues in the Senate as a valuable assest to his State and to his county. He maintained the diginty and honor of the position and was outspoken on all measures that came before that body. We maintain that his return to the Senate in 1927 is due him and the people of the State and County whom he served so faithfully and well. He is president of the Third National Bank of Chestertown and is well and favorably known in financial circles as an able banker and financier.

MR. ELLSWORTH C. BOWERS, who is a candidate for the legislature, is a man of large and successful business experiences. He has served this county in the past three sessions of the Maryland legislature and is well qualified to serve the people in that body. His knowledge of legislative doings will make him an exceptionally desirable candidate. His record of the past three sessions is before the voters and on that record he stands. He is a member of the well-known firm of Stavely & Bowers, of Lynch, is a director in the Third National Bank of Chestertown and a director in a large Baltimore and a large Wilmington finance corporation. His legislative and business experience makes him unusally fitted for the position he is seeking at the hands of the voters.

MR. JEFFERSON D. AYRES the other candidate for the legislature is also a man of exceptionally good business training and one of the most representative citizens of the lower section of this county. Mr. Ayres is one of those well qualified unassuming men who has not aspired to public office and therefore is not as well known to the voters of the county as is his running mate, but he can be relied upon to give a conservative and able administration to his consittuents, Mr. Ayres is well acquainted with the needs of the watermen especially these engaged in the fish, oyster and crab industry and can be relied upon to take care of their interests. He was born and has lived his entire life among the watermen and can appreciate, as few can, the difficulties under which they are placed, and knows best how to serve them. Reference to other candidates on the Regular Organization ticket will be made next week.

(COMMUNICATED)

Messrs Editors:—Having read the Editorial in the Kent News regarding the name of our faction of the party I am writing to ask what is really the Organization. In consulting the dictionary I find the definition is "following along the line of the deliberative body" that is, I suppose agreeing with the powers that be. Certainly the party they so unfeelingly condemn to be "antis" until the "Ethopian changes his skin or the leopard his spots," are doing that very thing. In the National Government the Democrats are dubbed "Antis" because they are opposed to the existing form of government.

But the faction for which the Kent News is spokesman is trying to defeat Senator Copper and Mr. Bowers who are now in office and who are in accord with Governor Ritchie, who is the present candidate for Governor and all the other state officers named at the head of the ticket. Is not that following the line of the deliberative body. And have not the other faction taken the position of "Antis?"

Again the article speaks of this faction as thinking so well of their men that we have placed them on our ticket. In looking over their choice I notice several names that heretofore belonged to this faction. So it seems to me that turn about is fair play and we should not be blamed for that.

Certainly the Bible verse referred to in the News article is a very inapt simile.

Politics has ever been referred to as a fickle maid, but here they wish to condemn our side to a policy which never should change and must be irredeemably bad.

What a partisan view to take! Our side is fully equipped to handle the affairs of government and we are asking the support of the citizens of the county, promising them to do all in our power to give them a good and just goverment and the name whatever it is does not alter this policy.

VOTER.

BRIDGE DAMAGED

Owing it is thought to a burning coal dropped from a locomotive, the B. & O. Bridge at Havre de Grace caught on fire last Tuesday noon. Owing to the height and length of the bridge the fire fighters were very much handicapped but it was finally extinquished. The loss is estimated at several thousands dollars.

A new dormitory, at Western Maryland College costing $150.000 and a new athletic field, built at a cost of $50,000 and considered one of the best fields in the eastern part of the United States, are features at this college. A financial campaign just closing will increase the endowment by a half million dollars and thus furnish additional permanent income. The college plant has now a value of $1,500,000 and it is proposed to augment this by at least that much more.
