DEATHS

Stricken suddenly in his home on Saturday afternoon, B. H. Linwood Carter, president of the Board of County Commissioners of Queen Anne's county and one of the most prominent men in Centreville died from a stroke of apoptexy. Mrs. Townshend Anthony, of near Chestertown is a daughter of the deceased.

Mrs. Lewis A. Langmaid died Friday morning at her late home in Grainesvile, Florida, of paralysis, aged 45 years. The deceased was formerly Miss Mae Crow, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Crow, of Chestertown. She is survived by a husband and one sister, Mrs. Lilie Lackie, of Westfield, N. J. Her remains were brought via train on Sunday evening and rested at the home of her sister in law, Mrs. Owen B.Crow,where funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 3 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. F. Cockran. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were William Bell, Walter Crow, Harry B. Rote, J. Hydie Thompson, Elwood Baker and John E. Barnes. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Elmore Skirven, a former highly respected citizens of this county but for many years a resident of Baltimore city died suddenly at his home 912 E. Preston street Wednesday evening aged about 60 years. Mr. Skirven, when taken ill, called to a neighbor and asked them do something for him. The neighbor The neighbor called a physician but Mr. Skirven died before the physician arrived. He has been suffering with high blood pressure for ome little while and his death was caused from heart trouble. Mr. Skriven was a late James Skirven of this country. His wife, Miss Sarah Morris, sister of Mr. Elwood Morris of this county died some years ago. since which time Mr. Skriven has remained a widower. He was a man devoted to the sport of fishing and was making arrangement to come to Kent county in few weeks to spend his vacation. His remains will be brought to Tolchester today and intered in the Morris lot in Chester cemetery. The bearers will be chosen from his many friends of the Gas Co., where Mr. Skriven has been an honored employe for many years.

The Sudlersville High School Commencement closed with a base ball game between the High School and th Alumni played on Friday, June 18, the High School winning by a score of 5 to 4 and on Saturday evening the Alumni banquet held in the Community Hall which was well attended and the speeches and class songs made it a very enjoyable occasion.
