NESCO OIL COOK STOVE

Cut Your Fuel Bill

"Our fuel bill was entirely too high so we bought a Nesco Oil Cook Stove. Since then our fuel bills have been cut in half."

That's what one owner wrote about her Nesco, because one gallon of oil will supply one burner for twenty-five hours. A few cents a day is all it costs to prepare three meals. Uses kerosene–but burns gas.

You really cannot afford to deny yourself the economy and pleasure this stove will bring to you.

LOCAL MATTER

—A "beauty parlor" has now opened on Court Street.

—Gill Bros. special feature for this week end will be fresh Georgia peach ice cream.

—Crabs, once so plentiful in Kent that the maret was always over stocked, have about diappeared in Kent.

—The local fire company had one of its engines at the carnival of the Millington Fire Company on Thursday.

The big carnival for the benefit of the Millington Fire Company is in progress many from here have attended.

—The Rotary Club of Chestertown enjoyed supper at "Maplehurst" Wednesday evening. Several interesting speeches were made.

—Nine killed and four injured represented the holiday toll near Salisbury. The eight persons perished in grade crossing accidents.

—Chestertown is again threatened with a water shortage and the pumps are working daily to keep the people supplied.* The heavy rains this week will help considerably.

—Delaware highway officials will continue enforcement of the recent ruling requiring Maryland motor vehicles for hire to take out Delaware licenses while operating in that State.

—The Public Health Association held their first regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Maxwell as president on July 8th in Chestertown. The meeting was well attended and the co-operation of the county is asked in this splendid work.

—The Kent County Chamber of Commerce, as a part of the De-Mar-Va Association will organize the county as follows: Fourth District, July 15; First District, July 16; Betterton, July 22; Rock Hall, July 23. See advertisement in this issue for particulars.

—The Chestertown Enterprise has installed a new power press in their composing room on Cross street. This new press enables the Enterprise to increase its paper from a 6 column sheet to a seven column sheet. This is a great improvement.

—Two airplanes maneuvered over Chestertown and Kent county during the polo game Saturday. The machines were operated by friends of Manager Henry Kratzer, of the local polo club. After completing the performance the artists landed in a field near the Polo grounds and were themselves thrilled by the lady poloists.

—The Chestertown Water Board, with Mayor Satterfield made a tour of the various towns on the Shore, for the purpose of inspecting the water systems in each town. The appearance of sand in the water of Chestertown indicates that the strainers in the suction pipes are in poor condition, and need replacing.

—Massey had an easy time downg Galena this week by the score of 21 to 1. Everett was in the box and made a creditable showing, it being his first appearance. He received air tight support from his teammates. Mulford, pitching for Galena, was hit hard and oftea and received very little support.

—The Fourth of July holiday passed away quietly in this county, with plenty of rain and fire-works and visitors from out of town. The usual displaying of flags was in evidence and the banks and public officers observed the day by closing their doors. The resorts of Kent were crowded. Taken altogether, the day was a most enjoyable one.

—A large drain pipe has been placed under the railroad bridge near Still Pond station. This bridge was the scene of an accident in 1898 when the engine went through the bridge following a washout and Fireman Clark lost his life, but Engineer Boggs escaped by jumping. The old engine was removed to make way for the pipe.

WHEAT FOR CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home, located at Easton has been enlarged and greatly improved. It is a veritable home for little homeless, girls the only one on the Eastern Shore, and it is wholly dependent on the generosity of the nine counties of this peninsula for its support.

The Board of Directors of the home have planned a more systematic plan of giving to meet the requirements of the Home as they arise. Therefore Kent Co., has promised to furnish the flour needed and a committee has been appointed to see those who are interested in the upkeep and welfare of the Home and ask for a donation of wheat for this purpose. This wheat will be made into flour, free of charge and sent to the Home when needed.

The members of the Board for Kent County are Mrs. Walter Chapman, Chestertown and Mrs. E. Thomas Massey, Massey, Md.
