THE TRANSCRIPT

The Democratic and Republican primaries will be held on Sept. 14th.

PERSONAL OF THE REGULAR ORGANIZATION TICKET

HARRISON W. VICKERS, Esq., of the Fourth District is a candidate for States Attorney. Mr. Vickers is too well known to the voters of Kent County to need an introduction from us, having served the people of this county two terms as State's attorney from 1912 to 1920. He was appointed by Gov. Ritchie in 1921 chairman of the Conservation Commission of this State which position he held for four years. After retiring from that commission two years ago he resumed the prictice of law in Chestertown. Mr. Vickers is now before the people of this county asking for their votes at the September Democratic primaries and is making his fight on his past record as States Attorney.

WM. H. McKEE, of the Fourth District, who is a candidate for sheriff is asking the voters of Kent County for votes. Mr. McKee served the people of this county in the capacity as sheriff some years ago and he refers you to his record. Mr. McKee has been a life-long Democrat and has always taken an active part in the political life of the county. He is well known throughout the county where he has large circle of friends, and if nominated and elected will endeavor to give to the people the protection they are entitled to under the law as far as it pertains to the sheriffs' duty.

VERNON M. BARNETT, of the Fourth District, is a candidate for judge of the Orphan's Court. Mr. Barnett is a new man in the political game never having aspired to political life. He is a man of good sound judgement and common sense; honest and of judicial temperment. For many years he was associated with his late father in the manufacture of bricks, but of more recent years he operated a bus line between Chestertown and Tolchester where he gave to the traveling public excellent service until about a year ago when he sold his route. Mr. Barnett asks the support of the voters at the Demacratic primaries in September.

WM. E. Brown, of the Seventh District, is also a candidate for judge of the Orphan's Court. Mr. Brown is an Ex-Sheriff and has been actively associated with the Democratic political life of the county for years. He refers you to his record as Sheriff and on that record asks for your vote for judge of the Orphan's Court at the Democratic primaries in September. Mr. Brown is a man of tender sympathies, a kindly nature and enjoys the pleasures of large circle of friends.

DR. EDWARD A. SCOTT, of the First District, is at present chief judge of the Orphan's Court in which capacity he has served the people of this county for eight years. He can, with pride, review his record in that office which he has filled with unusual ability and efficiency. The Doctor has no opponent at the primaries both wings of the Democratic party having chosen him as a candidate.

FIRST BOOSTER MEETING HELD

Wet weather kept a large number away but did not dampen the enthusiasm of the small group of citizens of the fourth district who did attend the Boster meeting, Thursday night, for the purpose of forming a Kent County Chamber Of Commerce. A big majority of those present signed the membership pledge and agreed to canvass for additional members for the county chamber.

The meeting was opened by Chairman Thomas W. Perkins, who after a few remarks, introduced the speaker, F. W. Maaloe, Director of Extension for the Del-Mar-Va Association. In the words of Mr. Maaloe "The Del-Mar-Va peninsula is a Garden Spot waiting to be fittingly cultivated."

Following a general discussion it was decided that there should be a flat membership fee of $25 for all, instead of the two classes, commercial and civic, as had been proposed.

The following progressive men signed the membership pledge becoming the first members of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce: H. F. Jefferson, P. M. Brooks, Frank Worrell, R. H. Rogers, J. G. Beck, H. B. Simmons, Eben Perkins, R. R. Corey, Alan Harris, H. C. Hughes, C. C. Hopper, T. W. Perkins, M. deK. Smith, H. S. Russell.

HERBERT E. PERKINS, Attorney.
