For State Central Committee

MRS. M. V. TURNER, 3rd Dist.
MRS. CLARA WILLIAMS, 3rd Dist.

ARE CANDIDATES on the Regular Organization ticket for the State Central Committee. The above group are all representative and well-qualified citizens of this county to fill the position which they seek at the hands of the voters of this county. The State Central Committee is the governing political body of the County and therefore is a position of responsibility.

For Delegates to State Convention
WILLIAM B. DUKES, 2nd Dist.;
ROBERT M. LOGAN, 1st Dist.;
ALBERT LEWIS, 6th Dist.;
ARE THE CANDIDATES of the Regular Organization of Kent County for Delegates to the State Convention, which convention will meet in Baltimore after the primaries for the purpose of canvasing the vote of the various counties and declaring the State nominees to be voted for at the November election. The above are well known voters and representative citizens of the County and are seeking the votes of the people of this County.

JAMES CAMERON, who was appointed to the office of Chief Investigator of the accounts and transactions of the World War, after four years search, has resigned saying that no fraud can be found. To those who believed in and loved President Wilson, this is a real comfort and consolation, but it matters not to the great soul of the War President. Conscious of his own integrity he rests in peace. Though his great dream for universal peace is not yet realized as yet and though plan after plan has failed so far to bring it about, it seems we are nearer to its accomplishment. Like the great Cathedral under which his body lies, it is yet in the building. All around are seen plans and models of the beauteous whole when the structure is complete, but block after block will have to be laid through many long years before it is finished. So year after year other efforts will be made until that great object, the World Peace, will be no longer a dream, but a reality. But meanwhile thousands of tourists visit Wilson's resting place every year. There he lies in a niche of the beautiful Bethlehem Chapel with the three flags above him, one to show that he was president, one that he was a soldier and the other a patriot. Around him the tones of the great organ in harmony roll, and sweet anthems and hymns rise to the vaulted roof above him.

"As a man may, he fought the fight
Proved his truth by his endeavor;
Let him sleep in solemn might;
Rest in joy and peace forever."
