NESCO
OIL COOK STOVE

Cut Your Fuel Bill

"Our fuel bill was entirely too high so we bought a Nesco Oil Cook Stove. Since then our fuel bills have been cut in half."

That's what one owner wrote about her Nesco, because one gallon of oil will supply one burner for twenty-five hours. A few cents a day is all it costs to prepare three meals. Uses kerosene–but burns gas.

You really cannot afford to deny yourself the economy and pleasure this stove will bring to you.

—In the course of a short cruise perparatory to taking part in the Miles river Regatta this week, off St. Michaels, 20 yachts of the Maryland Yacht Club of Baltimore, had a rendezvous at Betterton Tuesday before preceeding to Chesapeake City. The fleet was under command of Commodore W. Tilghman Hemsley and on Tuesday morning it preceeded to Worton Creek, Kent county.

—Mrs. Evelyn Harris, one of Kent's most progressive ladies, stopped into The Transcript office this week with a lot of information of interest to the public. Mrs. Harris says the price of tomatoes, early apples and corn has slumped so in the cities that it does not pay to ship them to the cities. Mrs. Harris will begin shipping her famous Bartlett pears to market next week. She has a contract to ship several carloads to Canada this season.

BITS OF HUMOR

A spinster living in a London suburb was shocked at the language used by two men repairing telegraph wires close to her house.

She wrote to the company on the matter, and the foreman was asked to report.

"Me and Bill Fairweather were on this job." he said. "I was up the telegraph pole, and accidentally let the hot lead fall on Bill. It went down his neck. Then he said: 'You really must be more careful, Harry.'

HE RAISED HIM

Man in Elevator: "Fourth floor, please."

Operator: "Here you are, son."

"How dare you call me son? You're not my father."

"Well, I brought you up, didn't I?"—

Money may talk, but it never gives itself away.—

TOMATO SEASON OPENS

KENT CANNERY STARTS THIS WEEK—WILL BE IN FULL SWING NEXT WEEK

While in the midst of the threshing season, tomatoes have started to ripen and the busiest season of farm life is at hand.

Farmers in the vicinity of Massey who started early with the idea of growing for the green tomato trade found the market flooded with green topatoes from southern states and have allowed the tomatoes to ripen on the vines. These tomatoes are ready for picking and will be among the first shipped when the canneries start next week.

The Rock Hall Cooperative cannery started operation on Wednesday of this week so as to take care of the few tomatoes that are ripe and will operate spasmodically until the season starts in ful. An effort is being made to transport the early Massey tomatoes to this cannery.

Rough estimates put Kent's tomato crop at about 50 per cent. of last year, although some sections have planted almost the same acreage. Many farmers discouraged by last year's prices have not set out any plants at all and have devoted their time to raising other crops.

At the present time no idea can be formed as to the price that will be paid on the open market but considering the shortage in acreage and the reports from the large wholesalers that last year's pack is getting short, it looks as if the price will be high.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear and only beloved son, Merritt Collison who was killed one year ago July 28th, 1925.

One year ago the sun was shining
The sky was heavenly blue;
Then our hearts were light and cheerful,
Because dear Merritt, we had you.

He bade no one a last farewell
He waved his hand to none;
His spirit tied before we knew
That he from us had gone.

We little thought when you left home
That you never would return.
That you so soon in death would sleep
And leave us all alone.

My Mother, Father and Sister.
