St. James and Lynch

Come with us in our regular services on Sunday. St. James Sunday School at 10.00 a. m.; preaching by the pastor, Rev. Colvin Randall, at 11.00 a. m., subject, "Confidence;" Christian Endeavor, lead by Miss Bessie Nicholson at 7.30 p. m.

Lynch Union Sunday School and preaching service at 2.30 p. m. With warm and threatening weather as a background, Rev. G. A. Morris, a former pastor, preached to a goodly congregation at St. James last Sunday morning. The pastor and twelve delegates to the institute at Westminster last week, who returned on Monday report a pleasant and profitable experience. Music rendered by Mrs. Hass and Mr. Noach, of Philadelphia, last Sunday evening in St. James C. E., was a real treat. We look to their coming again in the near future.

Mowbray M. E. Church

Sunday School, 2.30 p.m., Mrs. Ida Kirby, Sup't. Our special numbers will be accordion solo by Antone Lucht and a selection by The Legg Family. Junior Epworth League 7.00 p. m., Wm. Dickerson, leader. This service will be held in the Church Grove and the young people are arranging a very interesting program. Preaching 7.30 p. m.; Mrs. Walbert will sing a solo. Before preaching there will be a fifteen minute song service of well known hymns. The Church Aid will meet at the home of Mr. Frank Haddaway Friday evening, August 13th.

Bond M. E. Church

Sunday School 10.00 a. m., Mr. Alfred C. Loud Sup't.; Our special numbers will be guitar solo by Mr. J. K. Smith; selection by group of girls. Divine Worship at 11.00 a. m.; the choir will sing at this service "Church of God Awake" and "It Is Well My Soul." The pastor, Rev. Robert Green, has selected for his subject "A Vision of Christs Face." The Sunday School Board meeting will meet at the close of the morning service. Epworth League 7.30, Mrs. Louise Faucett, leader. Y. P. B. will meet at the home of Mrs. James Newnam Thursday evening, Aug. 8.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Urie entertained the monthly meeting of the S. School Teachers Association. Don't forget the S. School picnic at Tolchester August 12th (next Thursday). Everybody invited. The Sunshine Class held their picnic on Wednesday afternoon at Betterton.

Chestertown, M. E. Church

9.45 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., the pastor will speak on "Carnivals," and the "Why Of His Attitude." He would like all who are interested to hear first hand 7 p. m., Epworth League Services led by Miss Ruth Kelley. 7.30 p. m., preaching by the pastor.

P. O. S. OF A. TO MEET IN CAMBRIDGE

Patriotic Order Elects Rev. J. W. Reineke, Westminster, President

Cambridge was chosen yesterday for the 1927 State convention of the Patriotic Order Sons of America by delegates at the 1926 convention in Elkton. The following officers were elected:

Past President—Charles W. Schmidt, Baltimore.

President—The Rev. J. W. Reineke Westminster.

Vice-President—William J. Mowbray, Cambridge.

Master of Forms—Paul Newkirk, Westport.

State Secretary—William J. Heaps Baltimore.

State Treasurer—William J. Carter, Baltimore.

Conductor—Eugene Worthington, Hampstead.

Inspector—George F. Clocker, Baltimore.

State Guard—R. Clark Davis, Camp No. 34.

Trustees—Charles W. Williams, Baltimore; George L. Cole, Perryville Maurice Hilditch, Camp No. 19.

Memorial services for deceased members of the organization were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Elkton last night. The delegates paraded in the morning.

MILES RIVER REGATTA

Among those members of the Chester River yacht Club who took parties to the Regatta of the Miles River Yacht Club at St. Micheals were:

Commodore H. T. Hartman in this new yacht Tranquility; Vice Commodore, W. H. Truslow in the power boat Peggy; R. Hynson Rogers in the skipjack Harriett L.; Thomas W. Perkins in the power boat Ann; P. M. Brooks in skipjack Margorie S.

The Regatta was held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, one of the features of which was the race for the Sir Thomas Lipton cup, which was presented to the Miles River Yacht Club by the English sportman early this spring. This Regatta was probably the most interesting held on Chesapeake Bay waters this year and was attended by yachtsmen from all parts of the Chesapeake Bay, Wilmington and Philadelphia.

A girl applied for a job as housemaid.

"What do you charge a day?" asked her prospective employer.

"Well, mum," was the reply. "$2 if I eats myself and $1.75 if you eats me."—
