SENATOR W. B. COPPER

The following quotation is taken from the Baltimore Marylander which is edited by Mr. Paul Winchester. Mr. Winchester is one of the best posted men in Maryland on State politics and men who have represented the State and Counties in the Maryland Senate and the House of representatives.

"Senator W. B. Copper, of Kent County, is one of the frequent visitors at Rennert's. He is a candidate for renomination and his record during the one session he served at Annapolis was so creditable to his County and the State that there is every reason to believe that he will be returned for the next four years.

"The writer has been personnally acquainted with all the Senators from Kent who have been in the General Assembly for the past forty years, and no better or more capable man has been there from that honored old county than the subect of this short sketch. He is the sort of man whom it is well for the people to have representing them in the Upper House of the General Assembly."

From personal knowledge we can endorse every word which is contained in the above paragraph. We have had personal and political acquaintance with all the former senators from this county for the past thirty-six years and during that time no member of the Maryland senate has stood higher or has had the interest of our people more at heart than has Senator W. B. Copper. He never countenanced an unjust measure and never opposed a measure that was for the best interests of his constituents. He was regular in attendance, conservative in conduct and safe in judgment; he was held in the highest esteem by his fellow senators and by the State management. What better representative could the voters of Kent County want or ask for? What more could they expect and what more could they get? Public men of the type of Senator Copper are hard find, therefore, in our judgment he should be returned to the Maryland Senate and we believe the people of Kent will do it at the primaires on September 14.
