GIVING AWAY LIQUOR ON ELECTION DAY

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Act of the Legislature, passed March 24th, 1895, is published:

AN ACT

Prohibiting the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquors in the counties or the State on the day of Election.

SECTION 1. Be is enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment, or any other place where liquor is sold, or any person or persons, directly or indirectly, of any kind, on the day of election hereinafter to be held in the several counties of the State.

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where such offense is committed, and shall, upon conviction before any judge of any of the Circuit Courts of the State, he find a sum not less than fifty dollars for each and every offense; one-half the fine is paid to the informer and the other half to the County Commissioners for the use of the public roads.

Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, as amended by the Acts of 1900 and 1901, says:

Whoever, during the hours of registration, or revision of registration, or during the hours of election or canvas of votes or of making returns thereof in any precinct, shall bring, take, order or send into, shall or attempt to bring or take or send into any place of registration or of election any distilled or spiritous liquors, wine ale or beer, or, shall at any such time or place drink or partake of such liquors, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than $100.

FELLOWSHIP

By James Whitcomb Riley

When a man ain't got a cent and he's feelin' kind of blue,
An' the clouds hang dark and heavy and won't let the sunshine thru,
It's a great thing, O, my brethren,
for a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder in a friendly sort of way.

It makes a man feel queerish; it makes the tear drops start;
An' you sort of feel a flutter in the region of your heart;
You can't look up and meet his eyes,
you don't know what to say;
When his hands are on your shoulders in a friendly sort of way.

O, the world's a curious compound,
with its honey and it's gall,
With its care and bitter crosses, but a good world after all;
An' a good God must have made—leastways that what I say,
When a hand is on your shoulder is a friendly sort of way.
