WHILE THE RESULTS of the Democratic primaries on Tuesay last was disappointing to many of us, yet it is the voice of the people of this county. They have spoken through the ballot and this action must be obeyed. The only proper thing to do is for all Democrats to support the winners and we believe they will do it. The primary campaign was waged good naturedly and we have not heard of any very sore spots. The winners at the primaries will have our hearty support and we believe they will have no serious difficulty in winning the election.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my darling little nephew, Walter A. Clayton,Jr., who departed this life August 29, 1926.

Our baby is dead, no sadder words can be spoken than these. He was loved by all who knew him, and had many devoted friends and relatives. How they hunger a touch of the vanquished hand and the sound of a voice that is still; all these will miss him but their sorrow and grief are not to be compared with the poignant grief and heart breaking sorrow of his parents at the home he has left desolate But dear ones weep not, he is not dead, his spirit has only taken its flight to the God who gave it. He cannot come back to you but you can go to him. God knows best and he saw what a bright little gem he would make for his kingdom, so with wonderful compassion he gently and tenderly gathered him in his arms and claimed him for his own, taking him from a world of sorrow and suffering to a land where there is no more sickness and no more death. May God in his infinite love and wisdom finally heal the crushed hearts of his loving Father and Mother and help them to lean on the everlasting arms for comfort and support in this their great trouble and also to feel that God still tenderly loves them. Their darling has only gone on before them a little while, and at the pearly gates, will eagerly await them to join him in that home beyond the skies. He was laid to rest in Townsend cemetery. The bright sun was shining and the beautiful flowers all showed how God and friends loved our darling.

Tender Shepherd thou has stilled
Now thy little lambs brief weeping.
Oh, how peaceful, pale, and mild
In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping.
And no sigh of anguish sore
Heaves that little bosom more.

In this world of care and pain
Lord, there would'st no longer leave it.
To the sunny heavenly plain
Thou dost now with joy receive it;
Clothed in robes spotless white
Now it dwells with thee in light.

Ah Lord Jesus grant that we
Where it lives may soon be living
And the lovely pastures see
That its heavenly food are giving.
Though thou take what most we love.

BY HIS LOVING AUNT MARY.
