Lyceum Theatre Program

Following is a brief reveiew of the pictures to be shown at the Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, next week:

"The Limited Mail"

There are four excellent reasons for seeing "The Limited Mail," the Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen which comes to the Lyceum Tuesday, Sept. 28th,. First there is the story Elmer Vance's successful melodrama and book, with its thrilling romance. Then there is Monte Blue in the leading role of a handsome, husky Eastern ne'er-do-well, who finds peace and happiness as a train engineer in the West. Then the magnificent backgrounds of the Colardo mountains where the picture was screened. And then a brilliant cast that includes Vera Reynolds, Willard Louis, Tom Gallery, Master Jack Hatf, Edward Gribbon, Otis Harlan and Lydia Yeamons Titus.

"Blarney"

The bare knuckle days of the prize ring, when brawny gladiators, with nothing softer on their fists than the skin that nature provided, fought each other to a standstill on the hard turf, have been made the background for one of the most stirring motion pictures ever created, in "Blarney" directed by Marcel De Sano for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and which comes to the Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 29 and 20.

The grueling experience of portraying the virile conflicts of yesteryear, which appear now as savagery, fell to Ralph Graves, as James Carabine," and Malcolm Waite as "Blanco Johnson.

When Graves and Malcolm Waite faced each other on a location in Laurel Canyon, near Hollywood, California, for their first fight before the camera, in which Waite was scheduled to be defeated, an atmosphere had been created that was an authentic representation of the staging of one of the old time bare knuckle fights.

"The Sea Beast"

"The Sea Beast," the Warner picture that marks John Barrymore's return to the screen, is described as "an epic of the golden age of American sea-faring adventure." It deals with the 1840 whalers.

Barrymore appears as Ahab Ceeley, the New England sailor who falls in love with a missionary's daughter whom he meets on a voyage to Java. His brother, Derek, burns with jealous hate at the success of Ahab as a lover, and when the brothers are off on a hunt for an enormous white whale, known as Moby Dick, his chance for vengeance comes. Out on a little boat, Ahab is the first to plunge the harpoon into the whale. He is glowing with pride of victory when the churning waters.

Ahab's leg is amputated as a result of the sea beast's bite. Crippled and apparently deserted by the girl he loves, Ahab scours the seas, a prey to the tormenting demons of revenge and despair. Caring nothing for life, he lives amid sudden death and ever-present danger. But in the end, Ahab's story is the story of an unconquerable soul. Barrymore, who toyed so beautifully through the pretty romancings of "Beau Brummel" and with such horrors of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," is said in "The Sea Beast" to have at last found a picture that gives full sweep to the multitudinous powers that have given him his position as the foremost American actor of screen or stage.

"The Sea Beast" will be shown at the Lyceum Friday and Saturday, Oct. 1 and 2.

SPORTS OF WEEK

Coaches Kibler and Brown are rushing Washington's "green" team for the initial contest of season with the University of Maryland today. Washington has only four of the "old men back," one of the number, Capt. Dumschott being incapacitated. Washington will make its usual game fight against odds.

Washington College will play the game that will mark the opening of the new stadium of Pennsylvania Military Academy on October 2. Graduate Manager Howell and President Titsworth paid a visit to the Penn Military authorities this week and report the athletic relations between the two institutions exceptionally friendly. These two institutions will meet in all branches of sport for many years to come. Every contest between the two colleges is very interesting and always hard fought.

France now haswon the tennis championship and Bobby Jones has been toppled from the throne in golf.

PERSONAL NEWS

Miss Evelyn Peacock, of Massey, arrived in Miami, Florida, just about the time the storm broke. No word has yet been received from her.

Mr. Argus Robinson and family, of Elkton, spent the week end with relatives here.

Miss Maude Duyer spent the week at the Sesqui Centennial in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Leffenwell and two little daughters are guests of the formers parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Urie.

The many friends of Rev. A. P. Prettyman and family will be glad to learn that they have been chosen to occupy one of the beautiful new cottages, built by the millionaire philanthropist, J. C. Penney, in memory of his father, who was a minister. There are twenty of these desirable homes with heat, electric, fuel and bath also furnished free to those lucky enough to be "chosen," in the beautiful town of Long Branch, Florida.

You can teach an old dog new tricks!

I WAS already a veteran pipe-smoker when I ran across Prince Albert. It happened one day in the smoking-car. I reached for my tobacco and found I was "out." A good samaritan sitting across the aisle held out a friendly looking red tin.

I accepted the offer. That was a great moment in my life, as it turned out. Why, that very first taste won me. It was cool, like a breeze through an open window. It was sweet as a ripe peach. It was fragrant, even in that smoke-filled car. I was having the time of my life.

The mildness of Prince Albert appealed to me too. Yet there was plenty of body to it. I knew I was smoking. And I knew I was enjoying it more than any other tobacco I had ever tried. That settled me. I bought some P. A. when the train pulled in.

That was several years ago. I've been a P. A. regular ever since. Maybe you need a similar experience to put you next to the grandest tobacco that ever lined a pipe-bowl. My suggestion is: don't wait! Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today!

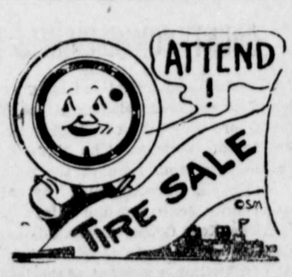

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

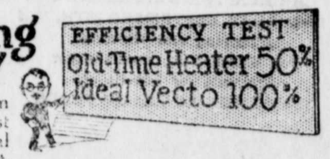

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
