MEN TO THE FRONT

The men of St. James Church are going to hold a turkey supper at the High School on Friday of next week. These men are going to cook and serve the supper, and in preparation for this event, the men have spent much time in the kitchen, receiving instructions from their wives in the making of pumkin pie, etc.

The men are going to show what they can do in culinary line, and the tickets are going fast. There will be 400 tickets sold, and Mr. H. Stockton Startt alone has already disposed of 100.

TURKEYS BEING SHIPPED

KENT GROWERS BEGIN ANNUAL SALE FOR THANKSGIVING

The annual shipment of turkeys for the holidays has begun in Kent and, judging from the prices paid by local representatives of Northern city dealers, farmers stand to net considerably more money than for any previous season in the history of this rapidly growing industry.

H. Stockton Startt, who represents Philadelphia buyers, yesterday shipped several truckloads of fine birds, for which he paid 42 cents a pound, live weight which is 4 cents a pound higher than prices paid at this time last year.

Mr. Startt says there is the finest crop of turkeys in the country this year ever raised, and it is estimated, on the basis of prices paid yesterday, that the crop will be worth more than $200,000 to the farmers.

The county Farm Bureau will receive and ship turkeys Thursday of next week.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEET

The directors of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce met this week at which time it was decided to open headquarters immediately on the second floor of the building owned by Thomas W. Perkins on Court street.

An electric sign will be placed on the outside of the building and the active workings of the organization will start immediately.

The president and secretary, Messrs. Thomas W. Perkins and Harry S. Russell attended the meeting of Chamber of Commerce presidents and secretaries at Salisbury yesterday.

The organization now has 40 members, ten new members having been secured this week and indications point that tis organization will mean a great deal to the progress of Kent county.

Practically all the counties on the Shore now have active Chambers of Commerce and the Peninsula is coming into its own.

NEW FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

At a meeting of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company on Monday evening it was decided to install the necessary equipment that will enable the teleprone operator in the Central station in Chestertown to operate the siren on the Fire House. Through this system much time will be saved in reporting a fire, as heretofore in some cases it has been necessary for the telephone operator to call a number of homes before a member of the company could be located. A telephone will be installed in the fire house through which the telephone operator will give the location of the fire after the alarm has been sounded.

Dear aunt, you shall always be remembered,
In this meary world of strife;
You shall never be forgotten,
As long as God gives me life.
By her loving neice,
Mrs. Fannie I. Edwards Dulin.

My mother is sleeping so free from all pain;
O, make her not sweet spirit to suffer again.
She slumbers so soundly
O let her sleep on;
Her sickness is ended, her troubles all gone.
Think how she suffered and bore all her pain,
In the long night hours as she was soothed in vain,
Till God, in His mercy, sent down from above.
An Angel that whispered a message of love.

By her daughter,
Mrs. Pearl Ford.
