The Federal Land Bank

has loaned to the farmers of Kent and Queen Anne's Counties more than $275,000 at an annual rate of interest of 5½ per cent plus 1 per cent for an amortization payment for the purpose of reducing the principal loan.

It is true that the bank requires the borrower to purchase a certain amount of the stock of the Federal Land Bank but it pays an annual dividend of 7 per cent. on this stock which reduces your interest rate to about 5 1-3 per cent. per annum.

No other Bank is as cheap. Call and let me talk over the matter of a l an with ?u.

—Hard winter prophecies are now due.

—Hog Cholera in Kent is decidedly on the wave.

—Kent farmers are getting rid of their hens that are not laying.

—Queen Annes County will hold a corn show next month.

—There are 3584 acres of salt marsh in Talbot. Kent has a large acreage also.

—Kent is having ideal autumn weather, with frosts and tinted foliage. foliage.

—Farmers are rushing through their fall work anticiating an early winter.

—The woods of Kent present a picture than an artist would be unable to duplicate.

—There are a great many hunters in Kent county and a great quantity of game being killed.

—Farmers of Kent are already beginning to move their implements to their new homes.

—The dirigible, "Los Angeles," passed over Kent County on Friday afternoon last.

—Betterton people were quite interested in a chinese junk, which stopped at Betterton this week.

—Dogs killed a large number of sheep on the farm of J. T. Fowler and Julian Jones, near town, last week.

—The largest crowd in years attended the revival services at the M. E. Church Sunday evening.

—A large flock of swan has been feeding near the Kent shore of the Chesapeake. It is however, unlawful to shoot swan.

—Thanksgiving day, November 25, will be observed as a legal holiday, as usual. There is a prediction of snow for the day.

—The sale of the Christmas seals for the benefit of next year's tuberculosis work will open on Thanksgiving Day.

—Mr. C. A. Bacon, proprietor of Bacon Auto Sales Co., is now handling te Chrysler Automobile and has a number of new models on display.

—A drive is made in Kent for members of the Health Association. This is a worthy cause and costs but one dollar. Everyone should help out in the good work.

—Work is progressing nicely at the Chestertown M. E. Church. The entire cost of remodeling the structure will be $52,800. Roland Dashields, of Salisbury, is the contractor.

Mr. Arthur Cooper, who learned his trade as a printer in this office and who since has served in other offices, is again a member of The Transcript force.

—Advertisements in The Transcript always pay. A lost handbag was recently returned to its owner, Mrs. Annie Duyer Brown, after one insertion in this paper.

—Mr. J. Alfred Bramble, of near Landenberg, Pa., formerly of Kent county had the misfortune to have his barn, chickens an auto and other things destroyed by fire Sunday.

GAME PRESERVE FOR KENT

The Bartus Trew farm in Quaker Neck, five miles from Chestertown, has been purchased by the state game authorities, who will convert the place into one of the largest game preserves in the state. State Game Warden E. LeCompte, who has investigated conditions at the farm, believes that no better or more suitable place in the state could be found. The property is ideally located on Lankford's Bay, an arm of Chester river, and abounds in woods and thickets as well as sedge fields and marsh lands where all kinds o game may be propagated. Mr. LeCompte has posted warning notices on the property to protect the already large supply of rabbits and partridges there, and he will shortly send to the place large numbers of rabbits and partridges for purposes of propagation.

SPAN OVER BAY

Plan for the erection of a bridge across the Chesapeake Bay to connect the Eastern and Western shores of Maryland at points near Baltimore are being formulated, it was revealed yesterday by Major C. R. Pettis, engineer officer of the Third Corps Area, U. S. A. Major Pettis was the speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Engineers Club.

He declarred that he had been approached recently by an engineer who wanted information relative to the Government's attitude in the event such plans came to fruition.

"Even if there is not sufficient traffic in sight to warrant the erection of such a bridge," Mr. Clautice said, "It does not follow that traffic will not increase. At any rate, the idea is to do something which will bring Baltimore closer to the Shore and reestablish the close business and social relationship which formerly existed."

The Baltimore Chamber of Commerce has had a committee working on this project for some time.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS

The commissions for the newly county officers are expected to arrive next week and their term of office starts as follows:

Sheriff J. Thomas Haddaway, and Commissioners, Ringgold Jones, S. J. Johnson, Charles D. Wood, immediately upon qualifying after commissions are received.

States Attorney Stephen R. Collins, Delegates, Ellsworth Bowers and Arthur Brice and Senator S. Scott Beck, first Monday in January.

Treasurer Clarence Newsome, June, 1927.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Buick Thermostatic Control provides smooth Engine Performance at 0° or 90° in the shade

Thermostatic Circulation Control is a new reason why the Buick engine is so easy to start and so pleasant to drive, in all kinds of weather.

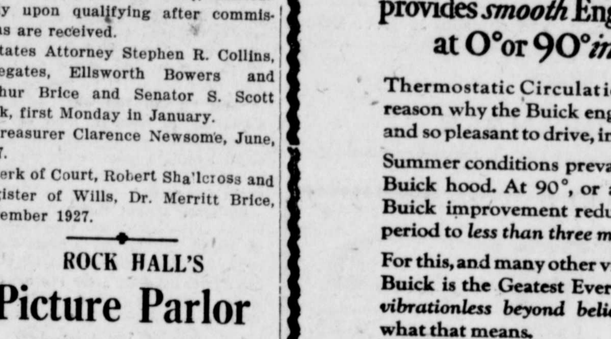

Summer conditions prevail all year, under the Buick hood. At 90°, or at zero, this valuable Buick improvement reduces the warming-up period to less than three minutes!

For this, and many other vital reasons, the 1927 Buick is the Geatest Ever Built. The engine is vibrationless beyond belief. Drive it and see what that means.
