I've got a half-nelson on jimmy-pipe joy

I TOOK P. A. for better or worse . . . and found it better! Better than anything I had ever smoked. That's my story and I'm going to stick to it. When siren-brands try to flirt, I just give them the icy stare. I know what I like in a pipe, and what I like is Prince Albert!

The instant you break the seal on the tidy red tin and get that wonderful fragrance of real tobacco, you know you are in for a pipe-treat. Your mouth fairly waters for a taste of tobacco that smells as good as that. Then you load up and light up—ah! . . .

Cool. Sweet. Fragrant. Old words, I'll admit, but you get a brand-new idea of how much they can mean in a pipe-bowl packed with P. A. Maybe you've always thought such pipe-pleasure was "just around the corner." Try a load of Prince Albert and turn that corner!

Get a half-nelson on the pipe-joy that's due you. Before you do another thing, buy a tin of Prince Albert and tuck a neat wad into your pipe. Notice how mild it is, yet how delightfully full-bodied. Here's a smoke that you can pal around with, morning to midnight.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS TONIGHT AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE—OTHER EVENTS

The basketball season, by far the most popular sport at Washington College, begins tonight on the local floor. Their opponent will be the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy. The game will be a good one, and will give fans a chance to see what Washington has this year. There is no question about it, Washington has a fine lot of players.

Arnold College will be here on Wednesday evening for the annual game with Washington.

Out of a total of 110 active players in the American League last season, Jimmy Foxx, of Sudlersville, batted 25th, according to official figures made public this week by the offical league statistician. Foxx is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Foxx, Sudlersville. Early in the spring he will report to the Philadelphia Athletics to go south with them in their annual training trip.

Regardless of the statement that the Navy is the champion football eleven of the country in our opinion the Alabama—Stanford game on New Year's Day will determine 'who is who' among the elevens of the nation.
