VERDICT FOR MR. HILL

A verdict of one cent in favor of Walter E. Hill Tuesday ended the suit for $40,000 damages against J. M. Holland, president of the Chesapeake Bank in Baltimore. Mr. Hill is a former resident of Kent and the brother of Robert R. Hill, Republican leader in this county. The verdict was returned by a jury in the City Court, where Mr. Hill sued the bank president because of an alleged assault May 1 at the bank. Testimony showed that Hill went to the bank to discuss a note which was overdue. An argument between him and the bank president followed during which Holland is alleged to have struck Hill, injuring his right eye.
