It has been a long time since we gathered there, and perhaps seems longer than it was. But Sabbath School will meet at 10.00 a. m.; and the pastor, Rev. L. Colvin Randall will welcome your presence at 11.00 a. m., in the hour of worship. The theme for the morning will be "Whitened Sepulchres;" at 7.30 p. m., Mr. H. S. This is a good program for a day's worship.

SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP YESTERDAY

Survivors of 142 teams which entered the race for the State soccer championship for county high schools this year, Havre da Grace, representative of the Western Shore, and Federalsburg, victor in the Eastern Shore elimination, met for the Maryland title at Chestertown yesterday. The game was played at Washington College and began at 2 o'clock. An unusual circumstance in connection with the contest affords for the first time in the nine years during which the tournament has been conducted a direct comparison of the contenders. Both played independent games this season with Beacon Business Academy, of Wilmington, Del. Both lost, but by low scores, and the results indicate a close contest today. Havre de Grace was a slight favorite in the contest, which was played on a snow-covered field.

Christmas Shopping At A Lumber Yard

Have you ever thought of it, my Friends?
Well, it isn't very hard,
To do your Christmas Shopping
In a Lumber Yard.

We have presents here for Grandma,
For Father, and the Boys,
But, of course, we haven't Lingerie
Or Hook and Ladder toys.

For Mother there are Breakfast Nooks,
With seats and table too,
A quantity of other things,
But we'll just name a few.

An Ironing Board or Cabinet,
Built right in the wall,
You can get them any size you want,
Either large or small.

Then for Sister Mary, well,
She would enjoy her home more,
If She had in Her room
A quarter sawed Oak Floor.

For Father and the Boys, we know
We have the things they like best,
But the space here wont permit us
To tell you of the rest.
