A word to the WIVES—

For every pipe-smoker on your list

AT THIS season, when you are being urged on every hand to "Give this" and "Give that," be assured of this truth: Nothing you could give a pipe-smoker could make more of a hit than a generous supply of Prince Albert . . . mild, mellow, fragrant Prince Albert.

Here, for instance, is the crystal-glass humidor, all dolled up in holiday clothes. It contains a full pound of P. A.—the grandest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe. There's a little sponge in the top of the humidor to keep the tobacco "just right."

Every pipe-smoker on your list would be tickled to death to find this good-looking package among his gifts on Christmas morning. It will brighten the Big Day for him and furnish deep-down pipe-joy for the days that follow. The Prince Albert humidor, by all means!

This prime favorite of experienced smokers also comes in pound and half-pound tins. At the nearest shop, you will find Prince Albert in sizes to suit every purse and purpose. If he smokes a pipe, your Christmas problem is settled . . . and settled satisfactorily.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

COACH KIBLER PLEASED WITH YOUNG PLAYERS—OTHER NOTES OF INTEREST

Coach Kibler is well pleased with his basketball players this year and expects a most successful season. He has considerable reserve strength, which counts big when a hard schedule is being played. After the holidays some exceptionally good basketball will be seen here.

The Alabama football squad, scheduled to play Stanford in the tournament of roses game New Year's Day, went through its final home practice Saturday. The picked squad of twenty-four will leave early tomorrow afternoon on the coast trip to Pasadena. The specially chartered train, which will carry a group of 125 supporters as well as the team, will make stops at New Orleans, San Antonio, El Paso and Tucson.

Jack Dempsey will probably fight again in the near future in New York. The former champion has regained popular favor and is said to be a bigger drawing card than the champion.

Jack Delaney, said to be the most polished boxer of them all, knocked out the heavyweight Gorman Monday night. It now appear that a Delaney-Sharkey match would be the logical thing in the pugilistic realm.

The trading of Rogers Hornsby to the New York Giants marks the eighth managerial change in the major league since the close of the 1926 season. In addition to the Cardinal leader, Bill McKechnie of the Pirates and Arthur Fletcher of the Phillies were deposed in the National League. American League pilots to yield the reins were Ty Cobb of Detroit, Tris Speaker of Cleveland, Lee Fohl of Boston, George Sisler of St. Louis and Eddie Collins of Chicago.

SOCCER GAME IN SNOW

HAVRE DE GRACE WINS STATE TITLE FROM FEDERALSBURG AT CHESTERTOWN

Playing on a field covered by several inches of snow, before an immence crowd, and chilled by a biting wind, Havre de Grace High School captured its first State soccer championship by defeating Federalsburg High School here today, 10 to 3 The Western Shore champions kept the title on their side of the bay, succeeding Barton High School, which had won for three straight years. Federalsburg, which won the title in 1922, holds the distinction of being the only high school on the Eastern Shore ever to win the premier State honors in the annual tournament conducted by the Playground Athletic League since 1918.

The contest was not so close as had been expected. Havre de Grace showed a superior cohesion in attack and a decidedly stronger defense. The system of playing the forward line and two of the halfbacks far up the field, with both fullbacks and one halfback close to the goal proved strong enough not only to net five tallies from the field but to prevent the Eastern Shore team from shooting more than one. The other score came from a penalty shot.

The Federalsburg team led in enthusiasm, having an organized cheering section. It faded from the picture however, when Havre de Grace began piling up its lead. Havre de Grace kicked off to start the game, but speedily lost the ball.

Federalsburg took the offense, but lost a scoring chance by a wild shot, and Havre de Grace kicked out. Federalsburg forced the game again, however, and this time earned a penalty when Moses was guilty of pushing within the penalty area.

Paul Croll, captain and right fullback of the Federalsburg team, shot the penalty kick successfully, the ball striking the goal post and caroming through for the first point.

Seven minutes of play had elapsed before the first tally, but ffeld goals began booming from the toes of Havre do Grace forwards with startling rapidity at once. In the next four minutes a serious of fast passes carried the ball into Federalsburg's danger zone before the backfield had an opportunity to set itself to meet the attack, and Clarence Crossley snapped a short shot into the net for the first goal.

Wesley Gibson repeated in the next ten minutes on a similar play. The passing of the Havre de Grace booters drew the Federalsburg backs out of position, permitting short clear shots that hardly could fail. Within four minutes a third goal had been added to make the count 6 to 1. Vincent Amato shooting this one on another quick attack.

Then, with two minutes of play in the first half remaining, Federalsburg shot its only field goal. Dobson taking a boot from the outside and counting.

The tally at half time was 6 to 3 in favor of Havre de Grace. In the second period Havre de Grace retreated further into its defensive shell. The backfield played closer and on each occasion that threatened the entire halfback line withdrew into the danger zone and a goal past this cordon was found to be an impossibility by the Federalsburg forwards. The carried the ball down the field time after time, only to have the effort fizzle out in a useless goal kick or nearly as futile corner kick.

The second half contained less action that the first. Havre de Grace sewed up the encounter with two field goals from the toe of Amato. One was a long shot from just inside the penalty area mark two minutes after the half began, and the other was scored from a series of passes when only a minute of play remained.

The major part of the second half was taken up with Federalsburg's desperate efforts to overcome the handicap and the overanxiety to forge ahead resulted in lack of coherence the attack that wasted many precious chances.

The stars of the game for Havre de Grace were Vincent Amato, who shot three of the goals; Paul Forsythe, who played a busy defensive game; Robert Warfel, whose efforts at fullback barred several open shots, and Lawrence Preston, who ranged all over the central portion of the pitch breaking up passes and feeding the ball to his forwards.

For Federalsburg the work of Paul Croll at fullback was outstanding. But for his efforts the score would have been higher without a doubt.
