Christmas cheer to the hosts of readers of this paper is the wish of the editors.

CHRISTMAS

It was a joyful season from the beginning, The Angels sang, "Glory to God in the highest And on earth peace goodwill to men."

And the humble shepherds heard it and left their flocks to see that which was told by the Angels. And they first saw the babe in the manger.

But there was wise men, too, who were eager for the higher life and had searched many years after truth, who saw the star in the east and followed it until they found the babe in Bethlehem.

But they found more than truth. They brought reverence to the stable and made it a shrine for these devont men were wise. They were wise because they came to the place to Worship the King for wise men place worship in his creed.

They were also wise because they sought peace and found it, "the peace of God that passeth understanding," Peace is a condition; for its true meaning implies happiness and content for the individual or nation.

They were wise because they brought their gifts, gold, frankincense and Myrrh, the best that they could give. They did not measure life by mercenary standards, they gave to God the best that they had.

So these wise men left Bethlehem far wiser than came. They had seen the Savior of the world. The wise men knew that the world has never had a gift like that on the first Christmas morning. They had seen the truth and had climbed higher toward the light.

CONNELLY—STENGER

Mrs. L. H. Connelly, of Queen St., Chestertown, announces the marriage of her daughter, Helen Tilghman, to Mr. Wilbur J. Stenger on Saturday, June 12, 1926.

Mrs. Stenger is one of the most popular young ladies of Chestertown. Mr. Stenger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stenger, of Williamsport, Md., a graduate of Washington College and well known in Kent county.

CATTLE TRAIN MAY COME

Kent County may be visited by the "cattle train" which is being sponsor-by the Agricultural Committee of the Salisbury-Wicomico Chamber of Commerce, of which George R. Cobb is chairman. Arrangements now are being made with W. Upshur Polk, superintendent of the B. C. & A. Railroad, for operation of the livestock train over this division within the next few weeks.

The train is planned to encourage dairying and to increase interest in livestock among farmers of the Eastern Shore.

It would stop at towns enroute to exhibit specimens of thoroughbred cattle.

Speakers wil be aboard the train to answer questions on live stock or dairying. Assurance of the co-operation of the railroad company has been given.

Later a similar train will be operated on the Norfolk Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad by the committee, if the plan is accepted by officials of that company.

DEATHS

Mr. Omar Franklin Mason passed away suddenly at his home at Worton December 17th in his 56th year. He was a member of St. James Church for many years and a devoted christian. Mr. Mason lived at Worton all his life and was one of our most progressive farmers to within 5 years ago when he retired. He was a man of sterling qualities of a quiet disposition yet ever ready to help his fellow man, a loving father and devoted to his family. He is survived by his widow, Annie Guiser, one daughter, Mrs. Hope Dill and one Son Arthur Mason of Worton. Funeral services were held at his late residence Monday afternoon at 1 p. m., Rev. Colvin Randall officiating. The bearers were Elwood Morris, Frank Fogwell, George Bowers, Howard Toulson, George Watts and Robert Goodwin.
B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Rev. Robert Watt, district superintendent, of Wilmington, District M. E. Church for many years died in Worcester, Mass., on Monday.

William Atkinson, a highly respected citizen of Kent County died last Friday, December 17, at the age of 81. He leaves a wife Mrs. Sarah E. Atkinson, one son, Charles W. Atkinson and one adopted daughter, Mrs. Charles Miller. Funeral services were held from his late home near St. Pauls on Sunday afternoon. The Reverend John White officiated. Burial was made in the St. Paul Cemetery.

COLORED MAN LOST

Joe Wright, a colored man employed on Copper Round Top farm, tenanted by Mr. Leager, got up from bed where he was suffering with fever, and has disappeared. Parties have scoured the neighborhood for him. It is believed he walked into Chester River and was drowned.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Notice is hereby given to the stock holders of the THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, that the regular ANNUAL MEETING for the election of a Board of Directors for the ensuing year will be held at their banking house in Chestertown, Maryland, on TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 1927, between the hours of 10 a. m., and 2 p. m.
D11-6t. W. R. HUEY, Cashier.

BEAUTIFUL GREENS IN KENT

From the depths of the woods where Dame Nature manufactures abundant supplies of Christmas greens, comes the cheering news that mistletoe and holly both are particularly beautiful this year. Mistletoe has great clusters of frosty, wax-like berries and those who appreciate a bit of sentiment at Christmas-time will find that Nature has created quite an impressive master-piece in this year's mistletoe. Last season the red berries which have always been closely associated with the beauty of holly were missing. But this year they are back again—a brilliant, flaming red.

FEDERAL RESERVE BAND

For the information of bankers, business men, college and high school students, and the public generally the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond has just issued an authoritative, comprehensive, up-to-date little book entitled "Questions and Answers on the Federal Reserve System." This is a revised edition of a similar publication issued in July, 1920 and is nearly twice the size of the former volume. It answers the practical questions most frequently asked by bankers and other business men interested in the functions and activities of the Federal reserve banks. Those desiring the book should write direct to the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

THEATRE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 27th
William Fox presents
"Going Crooked"

Love and Romance in a smashing, nerve-tingling, suspense-filled story of adventure—with Laughs to chase the thrills—Mystery to keep you guessing—Action swift and furious and Bessie Love at her loveliest as the young adventuress playing contrasting roles.

Also Comedy "Dizzy Dancers."

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28th
A Warner Bros. Production
"The Little Irish Girl"
—with—
Dolores Costello

Thrills and laughs, romance and drama, a girl with a come-hither look in her eyes that drew the country boy like a magnet, a band of grafters that were outwitted by a little old lady, a trick that was so simple it seemed incredible that it would work, a merry game of wits—in "The Little Irish Girl."

Also Pathe News and Aesops Fables.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 29th
A Paramount Picture
REX BEACH'S
"Padlocked"
—with—
Noah Beery, Florence Turner Lois Moran, Louise Dresser

No more powerful a theme than this up-to-the-minute tale of a girl of today has ever reached the screen. By far this author's finest story.

THURSDAY, DEC. 30th
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents
"Faust"

Goethe's famous love story, renowned as an opera, is dramatically immortalized in this road-show spectacle.

Also Lyman Howe Hodge Podge and Educational Comedy.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY DEC. 31—JAN. 1
William Fox presents
"Three Bad Men"

Unending lines of adventurers rolling westward—

Untold numbers of unsung heroes in the fight for gold—

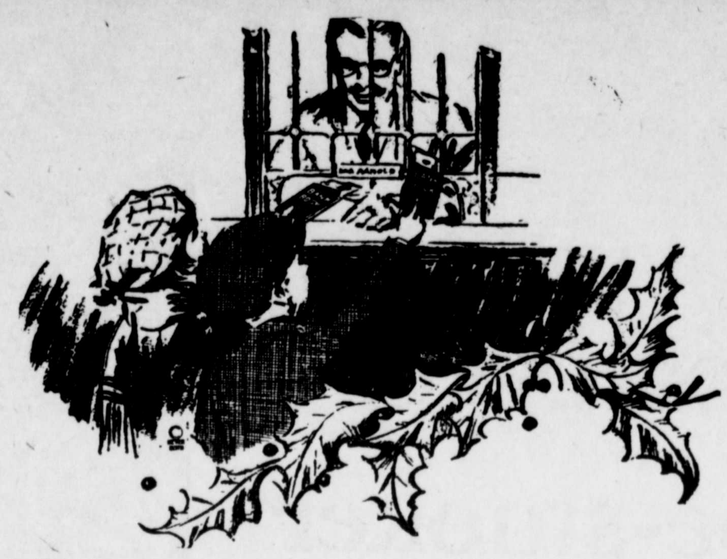

Unbending hearts in a land as cold as steel, where primitive passions and physical power ruled with a mailed fist—where might was right and weaklings dropped by the roadside—

Into this maelstrom of gold-maddened men and frenzied women rode a slip of a girl—and 3 BAD MEN!

Terrors of the West, wreakers of havoc, border killers who settled disputes with the shooting iron, they formed a protecting trio for this dainty bit of femininity—

And they rode into eternity with a smile that this transplanted desert flower might realize the secret of her dreams.

It's the mightiest of all great stories of the birth of America's tremendous Western empire.

The Tragedy of Broken Toys

When the last greeting of "Merry Christmas" has faded away the toys on the floor are already being forgotten. Battered and broken they have outlived their usefulness. By all means give the children toys—i 's part of their lives—but also give them something substantial. Such as a Savings Account.

The worthwhile lesson of thrift is thus instilled into youthful minds. And who can deny its value? So this Christmas, along with the trains and dolls, hang one of our bank books on the tree. A dollar opens an account and we'll put forth special efforts to help the children save.
