GOVERNOR ALBERT C. RITCHIE was inaugurated Governor of Maryland for the third term on Wednesday and if he serves out the full term he will break all records in length of years of any Governor in the United States. The Governor has given long, efficient and faithful public service to this state, starting as Attorney General. He has, by his progressive ideas and unusual ability gained the confidence of the people of this state to such an extent that every proclamation he has submitted to the voters of this state has been carried by flattering majorities, thus further proving their confidence in his wisdom and ability to look ahead and advance the interests of the state. We do not recall any measure of importance that has been defeated in any of the sessions of the Legislature since he has been Governor that has had his approval. He is in close touch with all the departments of state government and has, as the saying goes, "Put Maryland on the map." Governor Ritchie is a broadminded man and well qualified for any position in the gift of the people of this nation, and it will be our pleasure and we will consider it a privilege to support him for the presidency of this great country.

Legislative Notes

Representative E. C. Bowers has secured a position in the House of Representatives for Mr. William Steel, of Galena, during the first-half of the present session.

Senator S. Scott Beck has selected Robert Johnson, of near Galena, for a postion in the Senate during the present session.

Governor Ritchie has endorsed the plan of John N. Machall, chairman of the State Roads Commission for 4½ cents gasoline tax.

As is usual at every session of the Legislature the fish and oyster interests of the state come in for their share of attacks, changes and criticism. There are some important changes contemplated in the oyster and fish laws, at the present session.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTER FOR BRIDGE

Objection by Army PracticallyalGe

OBJECTION BY ARMY PRACTICALLY OVERCOME—RATIFICATION

Early ratification of plans for a bridge across the Chesapeake Bay was forecast today when the War Department signified its intention of withdrawing previous objections to the project.

Tentative plans for the removal of the army's long-range guns from the Aberdeen Proving Grounds to the navy field at Dahlgren, Va., made it possible for the War Department to change its position, according to information given a group of Marylanders who conferred with army ordnance and engineer officers today.

Conference Held

The Maryland delegation included Representative Millard E. Tydings, Stuart S. Janney, counsel for the Bridge Company, and Roscoe Bonsal, engineer for the company. They conferred with Maj.-Gen. Clarence C. Williams, chief of ordinance; Col. W. H. Tschappat, assistant chief of ordnance, and Maj.-Gen. Edgar Jadwin, chief of engineers.

The army officers told the delegation that the Navy Department had given tentative approval to the proposal that the army's 14 and 16-inch guns be transferred to Dahlgren for tests, thus removing the army's only objection to the bay span at the place specified.

Right Reserved.

The War Department, however, reserve the right to order the bridge closed in event of a war emergency, but this was considered a technicality applicable to all structures of the kind and was not regarded as a handicap to the proposed bridge.

Mr. Tydings said the bridge bills pending in the Senate and House would be amended so as to conform to the War Department's requirements, and expressed the opinion that they would receive favorable committee action at an early date.

WEDDING NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Parsons announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred E., to Mr. Theodore Duyer, at Clayton, Del., October 12, 1926. Miss Parsons was one of Kent's most accomplished young teachers and has been principal at Morgnec for several years.

Miss Selina L. Hopkins, of Chestertown, and Mr. W. H. Baker, of Baltimore, were married Monday evening of this week by Rev. N. O. Gibson in Chestertown. Mrs. Baker is the daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hopkins, of Virginia, and a grand-daughter, of Rev. S. S. Hepbron of this county. She has been acting as secretary to the Dean of Washington College since September.

GOVERNOR INAUGURATED

Governor Albert C. Ritchie was inaugurated as governor of Maryland for the third successive term on Wednesday.

The Governor had already served seven years, one term of four years and one of three, and the term that began today will give him an aggregate of eleven consecutive years of service.

The oath of office was administered at noon today by Chief Judge Carroll T. Bond, of the Court of Appeals, in the presence of the Senate and the House of Delegates and about 200 spectators crowded into the galleries of the Senate Chamber.

A salute of nineteen guns was fired by the One Hundred and Tenth Field Artillery just as the Governor took the oath.

The proceedings took but a few minutes and in a shorter space of time than it takes to tell it Governor Ritchie was launched upon his third term as the Governor of the Maryland Free State.

As soon as he had been sworn Governor Ritchie proceeded to the Executive offices and sent in the name of David C. Winebrenner 3rd, as Secretary of State.
