CELL-O-GLASS

Fine for storm windows, poultry houses, hot bed sash, better than glass, not easily broken, comes in rolls 3 ft. wide.

SPACKMAN'S ELECTRIC HEATER

This is an entirely new Heater, different from anything else now on the market.

All other Electric Heaters on the market radiate the heat. This Heater circulates the heat. Built on the same principle as a parlor furnace. Fine for small rooms. Will heat a room 8 by 8 with an 8 foot ceiling. Costs about the same to operate as an Electaic Iron. Come in and see it.

COLEMAN GAS HEATER

Built like a Radiant Fire Heater, but generates its own gas from gasoline. Approved by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Easily moved from one place to another. Fine for portable heating.
