MR. FARMER

Do you know that within the past eighteen months the Maryland-Virginia Joint Stock Land Bank of Baltimore, through Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., its attorney, has loaned to Kent County Farmers more than $90,000.00?

Do you know that you pay no bonuses or commissions to secure a loan through this bank?

Do you know that when you borrow $1000.00 you get a draft for $1000.00?

Do you know that every time you pay your interest you cut down the principal mortage indebtedness?

Your neighbors are getting "wise." It will cost you nothing to learn.

DEL-MAR-VA MAKES INVENTORY

Salisbury, Md., January 17—Definite dates for the Del-Mar-Va Takes Inventory Congress, to be held here in the State Armory, were announced today at the offices of the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association, as February 16 and 17.

Plans for the Congress are developing into such dimensions that the need of a full two day session is forcibly demonstrated. Because of this an extra week of preparation for the important commissions is required and also to complete arrangements for the nationally known speakers who will be heard.

Henry A. Wise, prominent New York Lawyer whose home is the historic Wise Estate, at Kiptopeke, Va., General Chairman of the Congress, will meet with his cabinet, at Salisbury, next Saturday. The cabinet is composed of the Chairman, Vice-Chairmen, and all committeemen of the Congress and their meeting Saturday will be with the Executive Committee and Vice-Presidents of the Del-Mar-Va Association. They will assemble at the Wicomico Hotel at noon and the Congress program, now reaching its final stages, will be submitted in detail for discussion.

Among acceptances by prominent business and professional men, who will participate actively in the Congress, is that of Dr. Walter Hullihen, President of the University of Delaware, who has written to Fred P. Adkins, President of the Del-Mar-Va Association, assuring him that the Congress will have the full and hearty support of the Delaware University and his personal acceptance of the General Vice-Chairmanship.

Dr. Claude L. Benner, head of the Department of Agricultural Economics, of Delaware University, has accepted the chairmanship of the Congress commission on marketing. Dr. T. B. Symons, Director of Extension Service, of the University of Maryland, and Dr. F. B. Bomberger, Chief of the Maryland State Depeartment of Markets, have both accepted service on the Congress commission which is to investigate and report concerning the general status of agriculture on the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula.

E. P. Nicholson, President of the Tri-State Canners Association, will deliver a reort covering the canning industry throughout the Peninsula and W. M. Dickson, Chairman of the Horticultural Division, which was appointed at Dover last week, will report in detail concerning the status of the fruit growers on the Peninsula.

Officials of the Del-Mar-Va Association, under whose direction the Congress is being arranged, express decided gratification with the hearty response they are receiving from the many leaders in all phases of Peninsula business announcing that they will participate actively in the Congress program. Every division of business and professional enterprise will be directly represented and thoroughly analyzed.

The inter-County meeting preliminary to the "Del-Mar-Va takes inventory Congress," for this division, which includes Talbot, Queen Anne, Caroline, Kent and Cecil Counties, will be held at Chestertown, Md., Washington College (President's Office) 11.00 a. m., Wednesday, Jan. 26, 1927.

SPORTS OF WEEK

WASHINGTON DEFEATS MUHLENBERG—OTHER NEWS OF SPORTS REALM

Those who still insist that old-time prizefighters were far ahead of the modern crop should give a fleeting moment of consideration to the record of the late Herry Greb, the Pittsburgh Windmill.

Here was a man who would fight anybody, any time, anywhere. He took on middleweight, light heavies and full-wedged heavies. Given a pair of gloves, a padded ring and an opponent, the Pittsburgh Windmill went into action with no further ceremony. He trained on fights.

Between 1923 and his untimely death last Summer he took part in more than 250 fights, of which he lost exactly half a dozen. He held the world's championship in the middleweight division and was leader of the light heavies until Tunney took that crown from him.

Twenty years from now Harry Greb will be ranked with the great figures of pugilistic history.

A New York Times correspondent Gene Tunney as "a fighter during the war." He would like to inspect Gene's campaign record in the forward zone of the late war and further states that it has no bearing on his worth as a heavyweight champion.

There's a modicum of truth in that, but at least Tunney's war record is nothing to be held against him. Delaney, Berlenbach, Sharkey and Maloney were too young for service, but Tunney was about 20 years old when he volunteered for the United States Marines and was received as just one more Leatherneck headed for France.

That isn't a bad record, even if it stopped right there.

There's only one Pontiac Six
—and only General Motors could build it

The Pontiac Six swept into the limelight because it came to the public representing all the skill, resources and experience of General Motors. And it has remained in the limelight from the very day of its introduction, because no other car has since appeared which offers so much for so low a price.

Only the economies of General Motors' vast purchasing power could make possible at $825—Fisher closed bodies of such commanding beauty, finished in distinctive Duco colors, and such unusual fine car features as 46 lb. crankshaft, honed cylinders, full pressure oiling, automatic spark control, and bronze-backed interchangeable bearings of the costliest type.

A full year has passed since the Pontiac Six was introduced—and the supreme satisfaction of 60,000 owners lends emphasis to the fact: There is only one Pontiac Six—and only General Motors could build it!

Pontiac Six, $825 to $975. Oakland Six, companion to Pontiac Six, $1025 to $1295. All prices at factory. Bodies by Fisher. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.
