ACHIEVEMENT DAY FOR NUTRITION WORK

The Kent County Council for Home Demonstration Work held their first meeting for the year 1928 at the Firemen's Hall, Friday, January 27th, it being Achievement Day.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Hugh Hartman acting as president in the absence of Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll. Mrs. Wm. Knight acted as Secretary in the absence of Mrs. Walter Wirtz.

The minutes of the last meeting of the County Council, which was held in November at the Court House, were read and stood approved.

The Rock Hall Club scored best in their club work and were awarded $5.00 as the prize. Then a discussion of the prizes were held. A motion was made and seconded that $5.00 be awarded as first prize and $2.50 as second prize for the best score of the different clubs throughout the County this year. Motion was made and carried that the County Council donate $10.00 from their treasury towards the Ambulance Fund. The next business was the election of officers which will be held in April. It was voted upon and carried that the nominations be from the floor. There was no old business.

Miss Schellinger, Home Demonstration Agent, had a chart hanging upon the wall showing January membership, and in November she intends to show each club's score. She is willing to give any help which is needed in her work if we will call at her office at the Court House.

Roll call of each Club that was present.

The wife should urge the farmer on not discourage the man. She should push, pull or kick the man (her husband) out to attend the Farm Bureau meetings. The ladies were given the chance to ask questions of Mrs. Williams work. One question asked was on the cooperative plan of buying and selling.

The Flatland Women's Club put on a play called the "Lunch Box" which was very good.

The "Beauty Parlor" was given by the Rock Hall Women's Club with the help of Miss Betty Amos, in the absence of some of their members, and a good many good points were gotten out of the play for the use of vegeables, would not have to be bought and used.

NATIONAL POTATO MARKET CONTROLLED ON SHORE

Influences which control the price of potatoes in the United States will be within the grasp of farmers in the potato belt of the Del-Mar-Va peninsula this year.

This fact was shown last week when a tabulation showed that 85 per cent. of all potato acreage in Northampton, Accomac, Worcester, Somerset, Wicomico and Sussex counties, together with nearly all the dealers of the section have been placed under contract as members of the Eastern Shore Farmers Association. The contracts were tabulated at Onley, Va.

As the farmers' association comes into being on such a magnitudinous scale, the country is given the most unique, and what is believed to be the most effective farmers co-operative organization in the country. During the height of the potato producing season approximately sixty per cent of all potatoes placed upon the nation's markets are grown in these six counties. During that period the shore association will have complete control of the market prices. Throughout the year, however, the 22,000 carloads of potatoes from the lower peninsula counties will have a greater influence upon market prices than any other combination of factors, observers say.

Joining the potato growers in the organization are practically every buyer and shipper of the territory, including the Eastern Shore of Virginia Produce Exchange and the Peninsula Produce Exchange. Support in organization and operation of the assocation is given by nearly every bank. In fact, it was the financial institution that originally started the movement.

Potato growers who have signed as members of the association are under an iron-clad contract not to sell their potatoes during the entire year outside of the organization. The dealers are not only under contract to abide by the association rules in marketing potatoes, but are also under $2,500 bond which is to be forfeited if a violation occurs.

FINE COMEDY AT LYCEUM

The Irish-Jewish comedy "Clancy's Kosher Wedding which plays at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, February 6th is by far the best of the comedies based on this popular theme.

The story is happily free of all the tricks of hokum and much of the obvious gagging that hindered its forerunners, and flows smoothly from start to finish. In this case a real reason is given for most of the action, and coming as it does, logically, it cannot fail to produce smiles.

George Sidney, who stars, turns in what is probably the best performance of his career, and all who saw him in "Lost at the Front," "The Prince of Pilsen" and the rest will like him still better i nthis new role.

Although his is essentially a comedy role, it is acted in such a manner that although laughs come thick and freely tears are never far away, and in this manner the story seems to be invested with a kind of personal interest which holds until the last scene.

The climax finishes the story in a very satisfactory manner and there is nothing in a single scene which can possibly offend a member o feither of the two nations involved. The film was directed by Arvid E. Gilstrom, and is one of the first produced by F. B. O. under the supervision of William LeBaron, late of Famous Players-Lasky.

SPORTS OF WEEK

BIG STATE GAME ON LOCAL COURT LAST NIGHT— STORM PREVENTS GALLAUDET GAME—OTHER NOTES OF INTEREST

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

Storm prevented the Washington College—Gallaudet basketball game Saturday night.

Washington College and Mt. St. Mary's College met on the local court last night in what was perhaps the hardest—fought game of the year. Mt. St. Mary's has lost but one game this year, while Washington remains undefeated. Interest was keen for the game. We went to press before the game began. If Washington wins, it will be a big step forward toward state honors.

Injury to Dempsey's eyes during recent fights has frightened the former champ. He fears that another fight might blind him, and we don't blame him. A millionaire, endangering his eyesight for the sole purpose of adding another half million is foolish in the extreme. There is considerable talk to the effect that Dempsey has retired from the ring for good. If this is true, then taps have been sounded in the ring for the greatest fighting man of any age.

There is a lot of silly talk against Tunney being circulated these days, since his last victory over Dempsey. The average person thinks Dempsey won, and the mention of Tunney's name causes them considerable worry. A lady wrote an article recently to the New York World, roundly scorring Tunney, calling him a glorified floor walker, self centered, etc. The World said, in reply, in part as follows:

"Why a glorified floor walker? He was walking the French front ten years ago when one of your boys was three and the other a babe in your arms. He WAS a glorified walker, without the floor, when he took his turn at the war business of being sentry. He was self-centered those dark nights, self-centered lest one of the enemy get through to rob your two boys of a chance to live."

Promptly at the appointed hour, the bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, which was skilfully played by Miss Florence Dixon a close friend of the bride.
