LEGION MEMBERSHIP REACHES 76

LOCAL POST CONTENDER FOR STATE HONORS—STATE COMMANDER HERE NEXT WEEK

The Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36 American Legion has gone over the top in the 1928 membership drive and is a strong contender for the state leadership in the drive which ended February 29th.

Each post in the state was allotted a certain number of members to be secured during the month, the local post's quota being 65. When the drive closed Wednesday evening this post had a paid-up membership of 67.

In a telephone communication with the State Commander Wednesday evening, Post Commander C. Lee Gill was informed that at that time Kent's post was second, being only a few points behind the leader. The five new members secured Wednesday evening points fair to put it in first place.

The gratifying results of this drive is credited to a small membership committee which has worked all over the county.

State Commander Here Wednesday

State Commander Wallace Williams, of Elkton, and another state official will be present at the meeting of the Frank M. Jarman Post next Wednesday evening; members are requested to attend as interesting facts of the recent drive will be disclosed.

The local post are planning a big day for Decoration Day and other interesting events for the year will be worked out.

St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches

L. C. Randall, pastor. To expect services at St. James this Sabbath, or not? That is the question. You may be one who will answer this question by your presence, in the Sabbath School at 10.00 a. m., and in the Hour of Worship at 11.00 a. m. To be missing services on these good Sundays, except for a few ruts in the road, when we go everywhere else over them, and while we approach so near the Eastertide is indeed discouraging, at least I fancy it is, to God. I know it is to me. I'll expect you.

At Lynch, services have been held most every Sunday and they will be observed this Sunday, with the Sabbath School at 2.00 p. m., Hour of worship at 3.00 p. m., and the Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m. Come.

Special music at this service. At 7.45 p. m. the pastor will take for his theme "Family." This will be very interesting to all families, so be sure and be present. On last Sunday evening the C. E. Society leader, Mrs. Redmile had a very interesting meeting, which was much enjoyed by all. The pastor's Theme for his sermon was "Building" and am sure caused every one there to examine more closely the material they were using in their building of character.

BEDSPREAD TAKEN BY SHERMAN OFFICER IN 1864 SENT BACK TO ATLANTA, GA., BULLETTORN

Charred by sparks from campfires and bearing holes as evidence of Confederate marksmanship, a woolen bedspread taken from the home of the late Gover. Joseph E. Brown, at Canton, Ga., in 1864 by one of General Sherman's lieutenants has been returned to Atlanta.

The spread, taken from the home of Georgia's war Governor when it was burned by Federal troops, was returned to George M. Brown, Sr., son of the former Governor, by Major E. L. Sivey, of Chicago, whose father "borrowed" it during the war between the States.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Herman Hill Bery, who died March 2, 1927.

Today recalls sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest.
And those who think of him today,
Are the ones who loved him best.

God has his mystery's of grace,
In ways we cannot tell.
He hides them deep like the hidden sleep,
Of one we loved so well.
By his wife and children.

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

We quote the following article from the monthly letter of the American Exchange National Bank of New York:

"OLD HOME INFLUENCES

As an institution for character building there is nothing that can take the place of the old-fashioned home. To those who appreciate the part which the influences of the old home-life had in building up the qualities that made the men who made our civilization, nothing is so important as the preservation and restoration of the home as our mothers and fathers knew it. The old home has not disappeared; it still lives and flourishes; but its struggle for survival grows harder as time passes and appreciation of its attractions and values languishes. Life is more hectic, more intense, its claims upon us seem more extensive, but it offers more diversion than diversity, and the fundamentals are still what they have always been.

The simple qualities that were bred and nurtured in the old-fashioned home are still the qualities that men admire. Honesty, courage, chivalry, courtesy and sportsmanship are still the essentials of our standards of character, the basic things that make our associations with one another possible. These things can be taught outside the home, but they cannot be built into men and woemn by anything but the home influences that bred them. In these qualities we have the foundation of self-respect, of respect for the rights of others, the basis of unselfishness and of kindliness. The old-fashioned home made good neighbors, good citizens and God-fearing men and women. It taught temperance, frugality and self-reliance; it fostered love, loyalty and friendship; it was religious, it was devout, it was pious. It was simple, unostentatious and gracious. Its pride was the pride of sons and daughters in fathers and mothers. It was hospitable, gentle and cultured. Manor or cottage, the old home was the abiding place of all that was sacred and dear to the hearts of men and women who had learned to live as no generation ever lived before or since. No greater boon could come to us than to have the old home restored to us in all the glory of its simplicity.

5 PER CENT. INTEREST ON FARM LOANS

Since the annual rate of interest was reproduced to 5 per cent. on November 15th, 1927, The Kent and Queen Anne National Farm Loan Association has received applications for loans totalling $73,000, showing the increasing popularity of this Co-operative method of borrowing money on farm lands.

If you are now carrying a 6 per cent. mortgage on your farm which never grows less, why not transfer it to the Federal Land Bank and get the benefit of the 5 per cent interest, enabling you to reduce your mortgage principal every year.

If you desire to purchase a farm the Federal Land Bank will finance the proposition to the extent of 50 per cent. of the purchase price on the 5 per cent. annual interest basis.

The Federal Land Bank proposition reduces the principal amount of your mortgage every year until it is finally liquidated on easy payments.

Come in and let me tell you all about it.
