P.A. and a pipe - that's all I ask

I DON'T mean that I am easily satisfied. As a matter of fact, I'm as critical as they come about smoking-tobacco. There are certain things I demand in a smoke, and I declare here and now that P.A. has 'em. Has 'em and to spare, if you ask me.

Fragrant as spring blossoms. Cool as "The boss wants to see you." Sweet as "I'm going to raise your pay." Mild and mellow and long-burning, with full satisfaction in every wonderful puff. It seems that there are not enough hours in a day to suit your Prince Albert program. You'll start in early and stay with it far into the night.

But all this conversation won't do you any good, unless you try out the tobacco itself. When it comes to speaking for itself, P.A. is the best little talker you ever listened to. Go get yourself a tidy red tin and get some of this pipe-joy I've been picturing.

More in quality, more in quantity—TWO full ounces in every tin.

SPORTS OF WEEK

WASHINGTON WINS LAST STATE GAME OF SEASON— ALUMNI TO PLAY VARSITY TONIGHT— OTHER SPORT NOTES OF INTEREST

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

Washington College not only defeated Loyola Saturday night; they annihilated them. There was no question about that. A margin of one point is a defeat; 47-23 is a complete rout. Washington was "set" for this game. They were rested completely; in perfect shape; had both the physique and the marale; they wanted more than a narrow margin of victory; they wanted some definite; the result gave them their wish completely. The team was happy; the fans enjoyed the victory to the fullest extent; Coach Kibler was satisfied. He knew he had the best team in the state before the game. He was just as certain of it after the contest.

Dopson caged the ball at the very outset of the contest and the balance of the team each tried to outdo the other members in the number of goals sunk in the net. Giriatis was the leading scorer, with nine goals and three fouls for a total of 21 points. Carrington and Dopson each made eight points.

The entire Washington team played well, and Loyola was completely outclassed. Their high scorer was Liston, who scored 2 goals and nine foul shots. The entire Washington College basketball squad had a chance during the contest.

The Varsity basketball team will line up tonight against a team picked from the following stars of past year: Coach Kibler, Dumschott, Carroll, Carrington, McGran, Lohran, Johnston, Young, Robbins, Lankford, Pearson and Larrimore. This should be one of the best games ever seen here, if the alumni is in any kind of shape.

After seeing practically all the basketball played here during the past fifteen years, the writer is of the opinion that Carroll and Giriatis are the two best forwards that ever played here. We would rank Carroll as the best bet, with Giriatis a close second. Coach Kibler, in his best playing days, was as good as either one of them, and perhaps better. Carroll was a better natural player than Giriatis, and a better shot. He was heavier and had a peculiar motion in going to the basket that was deceptive and was hard to check. He was inclined to be a little indolent at times and showed up best when his services were needed most. Giriatis, on the other hand, is in there playing his very best all the time. He is faster on his feet than Carroll. Both are superb players. Kibler, on the other hand, combined the best qualities of each of these players. He was as fast as Giriatis and as good a shot as Carroll, but not quite as tall as either. He was hard to stop with the ball. And he had that undying, unquenchable spirit, that never gives up. He is the type of man that is hard to beat. A team composed of Carroll center, Kibler and Giriatis forwards, Carrington and Fiore guards, all prime, would be able to cope with any team anywhere.

Sharkey and Risko will fight on Monday night. This should be a good battle. Risko is a hard man to beat, although on the short end of the betting. We believe he will give Sharkey all he is able to stand up under. Risko and Heeney are both fighters. They never have alibis and go in there and fight all the time. They don't hang back, waiting for the other fighter to lead, and hoping to get in one of those clever jabs, the kind that are winning heavyweight championships these days.

The local fans are giving a banquet for the basketball team next Thursday night. Every fan should buy a ticket for the affair. All who want tickets see the committee at once.

The Rotary Club team and St. James Church basketball team will play a game at Washington College next week. What this game lacks in real basketball playing will be made up in comedy. All who enjoy a good laugh should secure a ticket. Benefits are for the Ambulance Fund.

A preliminary game will be played between the girls of St. James Church and the Chestertown High School girls. The Chestertown High School girls team is composed of Misses A. Crew, K. Nickerson, A Kreeger, and A Wilmer, forwards; G. Wright, S. Harris, and T. Chapman, guards; N. G. Usilton, center; R. Brice and E. Smith, side centers.

The St. James girls team is composed of F. E. Rees, U. Moffett, H. Shriley, forwards; G. Rees, L. Startt, M. Rigby, E. Shriley and F. Orr, guards; G. Robinson, L. Randall, centers; and K. Watson, side center.

The boys and girls teams of St. James will play the boys and girls teams of Silver Brook church, Wilmington, in the Washington College gymnasium in the near future.

The Brewbaker Business College basketball team defeated the Washington College Freshman team Saturday night, 36-27. The game was very interesting from start to finish.

Elkton High School defeated Chestertown High School Friday night of last week 20-14. Chestertown had previously defeated this team.

A big crowd of local fans went to Centreville last night and saw the Ptomey-Stovall fight. It was scheduled for ten three-minute rounds. Bill Parrott is the fight promoter. He is certainly giving the fans of the Eastern Shore the best boxing seen in this state for many years.

Suppose that Risko defeats Sharkey and then Heeney. Oh certainly he'll be the ugly duckling of the heavyweight barnyard, but they let him enter the eliminations, didn't they? It is the survival of the fittest. Risko could ruin Gene Tunney's whole summer and make his fall season a nightmare. Johnny isn't one of the purple. He isn't a great box office attraction. But he will fight.

The best evidence that a reigion has gone astray is that it resorts to religious persecution.
