ARE YOU SICK?

—AND—

Nothing Seems to Help You?

Many people continue to be sick because tey have not had a thorough examination, more especially an X-RAX EXAMINATION.

In stomach conditions the X-Ray reveals dilated or dropped stomach, ulcerated and cancerous trouble. The examination is harmless, no unnecessary disrobing or embarassment whatsoever

When the stomach is diseased it causes gases, belching, burning pains in the stomach, headaches, mental depression, backaches, weak spells and palpitation of the heart.

If you are not in good health, whether it is your stomach, lungs, heart, kidneys, bladder or some trouble you don't understand, you should go to Dr. Carter and have an X-ray examination made as the first step toward regaining your health.

Dr. Carter is still taking regular Five-Dollar-X-ray pictures for THREE DOLLARS.

A VEST POCKET ESSAY ON HAIRSUTE ADORNMENT

A recent newspaper dispatch from a town in Canada tells of the formation of a society to promote the wearing of the beard. This may come as a surprise to the younger generation to whom such a thing is unknown. However, there are a few of us still living who remember the time when whiskers were a necessary adjunct to every man's attire and no self respecting male would think of facing the world with his face undressed. It was the ardent desire of callow youths to be able to quickly grow one of these adornments and many a boy has sought to hasten the day by regularly and assiduously annointing his face with castor oil and by clandestine shaves cut in the old barn with his father's second best razor. This and the ability to chew tobacco without sickening under the ordeal, were the much sought after accomplishments of boyhood in the old days. Once in about every decade or so, the husband and father would give his family a thrill by coming home with his customary beard missing. With the appearance of a strange man in the house, the wife would probably slip off into a fainting spell while the children terror stricken, would hide under the horse hair sofa. While youthful swains in the old days would have stood small show with the hoop skirted maidens without the hirsute proof of manhood thus attained, the modern flapper has small patience with anything more in this line than a thinly plucked eyebrow on the upper lip of her sweetie. In fact in most social circles today, if a man shaves less than twice a day, he is told to go home and wash his face. So with conditions as is, it would not appear likely that the above mentioned movement is going to find much sympathy.

In the swine world the removal of the hairy adornment by submission to the trusty blade of a tonsorial artist has always been taboo. On the contrary, the possession of smooth glossy coats by the denizens of the swine world is indicative of health and vigor. Just do not forget this one little point when buying pigs in the future. If the animals offered you appear unthrifty with the hair rough and dead looking, it should arouse your suspicion that the animals are unhealthy and not what you want for your hog lot. About 15 per cent. of the outbreaks of hog cholera in Maryland each year are caused by the purchase of hogs which have been exposed to the disease. Do not purchase any swine or permit such animals to be brought to your place unless you know the condition of the hogs on the farm from which they came.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not ordered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared t meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
