

What it takes to make a man pipe-happy, P.A. has!

TAKE a piece of paper and write down all the things you like in a smoke. Then buy a tidy red tin of P.A. and check the tobacco against your list. Open the package and release that tantalizing P.A. fragrance. Load up and light up. One thrill now follows another. You're ready to believe all the fine things you've heard about P.A.

Cool as a jury-foreman, rising to speak. Sweet as his words: "Not guilty." Mild as your interest in a civil suit. Mild and mellow, but with that rich, satisfying tobacco-body that only the world's most popular brand can offer. You can't seem to get enough of tobacco like this!

The proof of the puffing is in a pipe packed with P.A. Go get some now and see what a real companion your pipe can be when you put it on the right ration. Just around the corner is a store where they hand out pipe-joy in tidy red tins. Your cue-to-contentment is to get around there now.

TWO full ounces of genuine smoke-joy in every tidy red tin.

ROTARY HOE

There is not another tillage tool made that is quite as spectacular in its performance as the Rotary Hoe. You cannot fully appreciate it until you have actually seen its work. It can be pulled through a field of young corn, soy beans or other crops, without regard to the rows, and will do more real good than any other type of implement. The peculiarly shaped hoe points work right down around the little plants, working the soil just like a housewife works around her flowers with a garden trowel. Don't miss see ing this new tool.

DEL-MAR-VA CHAMPION HAS-SOME PROMISE—THE HEAVY-WEIGHT ELIMINATION SITUATION—SALISBURY EASILY DEFEATS CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL FOR SHORE TITLE

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

Baseball practice is being held daily at Washington College and Coach Kibler is trying to round out a winning nine from a lot of youngsters. A pretty tough assignment. Well, if anyone can make a good job of it, Kibler can do it.

A crowd of us went over to Centreville the other night and saw the bouts there. There was a great many fans from Kent on hand, scattered liberally throughout the audience. A great many of them looked a little sheepish, like they really ought not be there. Well, personally, the writer don't see a great deal of difference in sports. Prize fighting is a rough game; but so is football and a lot of other games. We have heard it said so often, always by people who don't know, because they have never attended a fight, that prize fights are attended by rough necks, where all kinds of profanity and drunkennes, etc, are indulged in. Of course, that's where they are all wrong. You will usually find a crowd's actions guaged by the admission price. The writer has seen a number of big fights, championship contests and the like. The crowd invariably behaves better than at the average football contest between two college teams, where the behavior is always worse than in a professional contest. For instance, we made a direct comparison between the crowds attending the Sharkey-Dempsey fight and the crowds attending the Michigan-Navy football contest. No drunkennes or vulgarity or profanity at the prize fight; all three at the football game. Likewise the Tunney-Dempsey fight and the Notre Dame-Navy football game. Perfect order at the prize fight. Rough neck tactics, making a person taking ladies there ashamed he has done so, at the football contest. Coincidence, you may say. Coincidences happen once in a while, not every time. The answer is simple. The higher prices of admission draw a better class of people. That is, a class who know the rules of decent behavior better. And that's about all there is to it.

About the best boxer on the Shore, as brought out by the Centreville bouts, is Bob Cosden. Cosden is certainly a scientific, agressive boxer. We like his style. Not a hard hitter, but an aggressive, scientific boxer, who will pound an opponent to pieces. He is a big improvement over the Tunney type. He carries the battle in every contest we have seen him. He is more like Loughran, the lightheavyweight champ. Green, Delmarva's heavyweight champion, has promise, but has no knowledge of boxing whatever. He has size, stamina, and some ability. We believe you could hit him with a mallet on the head and he would never know it. He looks mean too. Aroused, we believe he would make a good fight. He is a rough looking customer, and he is rough. In the hands of a good trainer, we believe he has promise of making a fighter that will make considerable headway.

Chestertown was defeated in a contest for the Eastern Shore Champion ship at Salisbury by the High School team of that town Wednesday afternoon, 26-12. Salisbury scored first and kept in the lead all thorugh the contest. Fouls were numerous. Ward was high scorer for Salisbury, while Lewis led for Chestertown.

The fate of the hapless heavyweights who were tossed into the deadly eliminating machine is singularly like an adventure related by a shipwrecked sailer in a recent edition of Punch.

"We split on a sunken reef at midnight in a roaring gale," said the sailor.

"What happened then?" queried an excited by-stander.

"We was all drownded," said the sailor sadly. "Every last one of us was drownded."

And thus Delaney, like Enoch Arden, poor man, was cast away and lost. "Full fathom five the Sharkey lies, of his bones are coral made."

What's to be done? Kipling didn't quite put it this way, but one might

"Ring and blow the fighters' call—the cry of an empty ring—
"And raise the Dempsey out of the mist for just another fling!"

That would be one solution, and probably Mr. Rickard, the skipper who was shipwrecked along with his crew, has some such saving thought in the back of his head at the moment.

At a meeting of the Susquehanna Base Ball League held Saturday at Elkton, Rising Sun, Elk Mills, Havre de Grace, Belair, Oxford and Perryville were in line, but North East and Elkton were not in readiness, and were given until the coming Saturday, March 27, to make final decision. It is reported that there is very little interest in base-ball in Elkton.

Arrangemens are being made for pool and pitch tournaments among the Chestertown Volunteer Firemen at the fire house here.

Feel Tired and Languid?

ALWAYS tired and achy? Sure your kidneys are working right? Sluggish kidneys allow waste poisons to remain in the blood and make one dull and languid, with nagging backache, headaches and dizziness. A common warning is too frequent, scanty or burning secretions.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and aid in the elimination of waste impurities. They are praised the world over. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:

John G. Smith, 615 S. Belnord Ave., Baltimore, Md., says: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Pills; they did fine for me. My kidneys didn't act properly and the secretions pained in passage. I had sharp pains in my back when I stooped and dizzy spells annoyed me, too. Doan's Pills helped me fine and soon had me feeling like myself again."
