THE NEW FORD CAR

The Following Are Some of the Out-standing Features of the New Ford Car:

The Ford tank is unique in that it is virtually one piece of steel, electrically welded at the seam, this seam being the strongest part of the tank. In a test made at the Ford Airport, one of the new Ford gasoline tanks was dropped 2000 feet from an airplane without damaging the seems, which remained in tact. The tank, though crushed still does not leak adrop. One of the advantages of the Ford gasoline tank location is: its simplicity, ability to supply ample fuel to the carburetor on long grades, freedom from leaks and frozen pipes, and freedom from possible failure as in a vacuum feed system. The vacuum feed tank on other makes of cars is close enough to the engine and contain plenty of gasoline to start a hot fire. The location of the Ford gasoline tank filler opening is a distinct advantage, as the Ford driver can see he is getting full measure. While if any gasoline spills on the hood it will not damage the pyroxlin finish of the Ford. A fine mesh circular sleeve, in the filler opening, prevents danger of fire from any open flame near by.

EXHAUST SYSTEM

The exhaust pipe is of 2" diameter, steel tubing welded to the front end of the welded steel muffler, nearly 3 feet long, and 6 inches in diameter, to which a steel tail pipe is welded, making the entire exhaust system of one piece construction and eliminating any chances of fumes from defective joints finding their way into the car to annoy the passengers.

IGNITION SYSTEM

Here again Ford simplicity of design and construction manifest itself. The ignition system of the new Ford car is unique in mechanical design, exceptionally simple and gives the car owner exceptional performance with a minumin of trouble. The novel feature is the elimination of high tension cables from the distributor to the spark plugs. There is but one high tension cable and this connects the coil, placed on the dash, with the distributor which is on the right hand side top of the engine, and which is operated by a shaft extending up from a gear on the cam shaft.

The distributor, which is Ford design, connects with the spark plugs by means of thin bronze springs.

The battery is of Ford make which is noted for its long life and reliability.

—Monday, March 26, was made a State legal holiday by a proclamation issued by Governor Ritchie the first of this week. He explained that he took this action because Maryland Day, March 25, occurs next Sunday and there is nothing in the law which says that the day following is a legal holiday in the event Maryland Day falls on a Sunday. This will be the 4th anniversary of the founding of the colony of Maryland.

DEATHS

Harry Hampton Hepbron, a highly respected citizen and farmer of the fifth district of this county, died at his late home in Swan Creek Sunday, March 18, age 52. He was the husband of the late Laura Hepbron.

He is survived by his father, William Hepbron, of Lynch, and the following children: Percy M., Walter J., Harry H., Ida Louise, Archie R. William E., Louis S., and Anna Elizabeth Hepbron. He leaves also one sister, Miss Elizabeth Hepbron and one brother Frank R. Hepbron.

The funeral services were held at Wesley Chapel, Wednesday, at 1 p. m., Rev. Dr. Hepbron and Rev. Mr. Dawson officiating. Interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Percy M. Hepbron, Walter J. Hepbron, Harry H. Hepbron, Archie R. Hepbron, William E. Hepbron, and Frank R. Hepbron. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Caroline E. Wirts, wife of George W. Wirts, of Rock Hall, died Sunday night at 12 o'clock, March 18, 1928, at the home of her step-daughter, Mrs. George Fritzge, 125 Loudon avenue, Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Wirts were spending the winter in Baltimore. Besides her husband she leaves two step-sons, Walter Wirts, of Rock Hall, and Charles Wirts, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Fritzge yesterday at 8 p. m., and the remains brought via Tolchester to Wesley Chapel cemetery where burial services were held, the Rev. C. L. Dawson officiating. The bearers were Walter Wirts, Charles Wirts, George Fritzges, Jefferson Ayres, William T. Downey and William Beck. Thomas H. Casey, undertaker.

Mrs. Cordelia A. Simmons, age 70 years, wife of Dr. H. Benge Simmons, prominent Chestertown physician and banker, died at her home here Friday evening of last week following a long illness.

Funeral services were held from her late home at one o'clock p. m., on Tuesday, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church and the Rev. Dr. N. O. Gibson, pastor of Christ M. P. Church. Later the funeari cortege proceeded to Principio Furnace, Cecil County, the birthplace of Mrs. Simmons, where services were held in the M. E. Church at that place, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Corkran, the interment being made in the cemetery adjacent. During the services at Chestertown and also at Principio, a quartette composed of Mrs. Merrick Clements, Miss Mabel Toulson, Messrs. Jacob F. Thompson and Carl N. Bardley, of the Chestertown M. E. Church Choir, rendered appropriate selections.

Mrs. Simmons is survived by her husband, Dr. Simmons, and an adopted son, Mr. Walter L. Simmons; a brother, Mr. Walter T. Jackson and sister, Miss Deborah Jackson, of Havre de Grace, Md., and a number of near relatives.

The bearers, all nephews, were Henry Burroughs, John A. Hartenstine, John E. Jackson, Jr., of Cecil County; Alexander M. Jackson, of Salisbury; Auburn Jackson and John Jackson, of Wilmington.

Mrs. Simmons, was, prior to her marriage, Miss Cordelia Anna Jackson, daughter of the late Alexander and Mary A. Jackson, of Principio.

Mrs. Simmons was an organizer of Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., first chapter to be created on the Eastern Shore, and was the organizer and first and only regent of Captain Jeremiah Baker Chapter of Cecil county.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TO SALISBURY

After working its way up to the finals for the championship of the Eastern Shore by defeating Oxford team Friday evening of last week, the Chestertown High School basket ball team bowed to Salisbury Wednesday afternoon by a score of 26 to 12.

Salisbury has probably the best High School team ever developed on the Eastern Shore and will probably make the Western Shore team hustle for the state championship. The Chestertown High School team is composed of Ford, Harris, Usilton, Lewis and Russell and makes a fast combination.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON CONCERT

Plans are being made for a concert to be held in the auditorium of William Smith Hall, April 1st. This concert is to be given by the Glee club of twenty members and the college orchestra of twelve members. The program will consist of glee club selections, orchestra selections, as well as vocal and instrumental solos and duets.

There will be no admission charged, the concert being open to faculty, student body, and to the people from the community. Providing this program meets with a favorable reception, it is the hope of the sponsers of this program to provide several similar Sunday afternoon programs during the spring months.

CALF CLUB BANQUET NEXT FRIDAY

The Kent County 4-H Calf Club will hold their annual banquet on Friday evening of next week March 30th, in the Chestertown High School auditorium at 7 p. m.

Among the guests at the banquet will be the parents of members, Mr. E. G. Jenkins, State Club Agent; Mr. G. H. Hibbard, Mgr. of Brookwood Farm, Baltimore County, Mr. Merryman, a national known Guernsey breeder, and representatives from the Banks, Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau and the Press.

This annual banquet is one of the outstanding agricultural functions of the year as members of this club have won national honors, and the club is one of the most progressive organizations of its kind in this section of the country. Complete arrangements had not been made at the time of going to press.
