St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches

We can not properly state the advance schedule of services for this charge without commenting upon the goodness of God to us in preparing the way for a happy week of services thus far, (Wednesday), and the interest manifested in the services by the group attending them. Surely our speakers have been in the spirit of the Holy Week, and brought messages in accord therewith. Though several services will yet be held ere the Sabbath, the Day of the Resurrection, arrives, it seems evident that the services of the week will be a preparation for the Easter-day. On that day, at 10.00 a. m., the School will render a program of recitation and song; at 11.00 a. m., the Easter morning Hour of Worship, with the pastor, Rev. L. C. Randall, preaching on the theme "The Dawn." In these services an opportunity of making a decision to follow Christ in public and to join the membership of the Church. At Lynch the program includes the Sabbath School at 2.00 p. m., and the Easter Hour of Worship at 3.00 p. m, then turning to the evening, the Lynch Christian Endeavor will visit the St. James Society in what will be their salute to a new season of activity. Mr. H. S. Startt, President of the S. James Society, will be the leader, Secretary of the Board of Young People's Work of the M. P. denomination, as the speaker. Mr. Startt has arranged a very attractive program, designed to map out a very effective campaign for the new season. Thus a happy day will be spent together. There is some possibility that a photograph will be taken of those in attendance at the morning services. The C. E. service is scheduled for 7.30 p. m.

This is Ladies' Aid week! The St. James group meetng with Mrs. Walter Taylor on Tuesday afternoon, and the Lynch Aid with Miss Ida Biggers on Wednesday. Full attendances are anticipated.

Charlie Chaplin In "The Circus" At Lyceum

Charlie Chaplin in "The Circus"! Peanuts .... sawdust ..... pink lemonade .... clowns, tigers, elephants, roaring lions, acrobats, wire-walkers, and Charlie Chaplin in his brand new comedy will all be at the Lyceum Theatre on April 12-13-14. Written, directed and produced by Charlie Chaplin, "The Circus" was two years in the making and it is the first Chaplin comedy since "The Gold Rush."

Charlie plays a wandering lad who is mixed up in a series of hilarious adventures, chases, arguments and ovations that land him in "The Circus" as a very fine fellow. Merna Kennedy, with red hair and just five feet, two, with eyes of blue, is his leading lady; she makes her screen debut in the role. Others in the cast are Harry Crocker, Henry Bergman, Betty Morrissey and Allan Garsia.

According to officials of United Artists Corporation, which released the new Chaplin comedy, "The Circus" presents the Chaplin of old, the Chaplin of "Shoulder Arms," "Pay Day" and "The Pilgrim,"—the thumping, bumping little man with the trick derby and cane, the wriggling moustache and the feet almighty. Chaplin himself announced during production of "The Circus," which was made at his own studio in Hollywood, that his new picture would be "a low brow comedy for high brows."

This is Chaplin's best comedy and Chestertown is to be the first town on the Shore to view this picture. Showing now in all the large city houses at advanced prices. Don't miss it at the Lyceum.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald gave a party at their home on Friday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Gladys S. Archibald's birthday. About eight o'clock the guests began to arrive. The evening was spent in games with plenty of music. Little after ten o'clock they were invited to the dining room, the color scheme there being gold and purple. Two tables were spread with candies, oranges, bananas, gold color fancy baskets of mints, block ice cream and ices and cakes. At each place there were gold color little favors, with souvenirs of silver bells or hearts with fortune verses inside.

There was a large birthday cake with eighteen gold colored little candles on it. When the guests were seated at the table, Miss Gladys blew all of the candles out at the first blowing then as she placed the knife in the cake, each one at the table made a wish while the first slice was being cut.

Many beautiful presents were received. After spending a delightful evening, at a late hour all left for their homes, leaving best wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Green, Miss Annie Keffler, Mrs. W. S. Hurlock, Mrs. Racie Hill, Mrs. Oscar Sparks, Misses Gladys S.
