CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET

The Kent County Chamber of Commerce held its third semi-annual banquet at Washington College Thursday evening with approximately 100 members and guests present.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, president of the Chamber, acted as toastmaster and opened the program with a talk on the accomplishments of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. John H. Farrell, Dist. Mgr., of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the U. S. Dept. of Commerce was the next speaker of the evening. He told of the work of his department and that foreign markets had helped dispose of an overproduction of certain agricultural products. He offered his department in an advisory capacity to aid farmers who were considering foreign countries as a market for their produce.

Dr. Franklin Bamberger, Executive Director of the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association was the next speaker. He told of the activities of that association and said that this peninsula had a bright prospect if the people will cooperate with the efforts of the Del-Mar-Va Association. Mr. Conlyn E. Noland a director of the local chamber asked all members and the public at large to cooperate and help carry out the undertakings of the chamber.

"THE ROUGH RIDERS"

Human and rollicking in places, grimly affecting in others, blending finely all the essences of love, struggle, bravery, humor, pathos and death "The Rough Riders" will show at the Lyceum, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 26th, 27th and 28th.

"The Rough Riders" can truly be said to set a standard. It is one of the few films which deserve the adjective, great, and which add immeasurably to the progress of the motion picture.

To attempt to follow the drama in a brief review is useless. It is too swift, too breath-taking, too replete with moments of subtlety and too flooding in its emotional character.

One can say that Paramount has made a story that breathes the idealism of Theodore Roosevelt, one of the greatest of Americans; that the story recounts his nature and his exploits in the Cuban regime of hate, war and fever, with an amazing spirit of faithfulness; that a love theme with Mary Astor, Charles Farrell and Charles Emmett Mack, winds like a glowing thread throughout the drama; and that the difficult sequences of the blowing up of the Maine, the gathering of the Rough Riders, their fierce courage in the hall of Spanish lead, and the dominant figure of T. R. alive every moment, contribute to art and express history.

The sterling performances of Noah Beery as Sheriff Hell's Bells, George Bancroft as Happy Joe, Frank Hopper as Roosevelt, Fred Kohler as the top-sergeant and Col. Fred Lindsay as Leonard Wood, are worthy of mention. Mary Astor is ideal as the sweet old-fashioned girl of yesterday whose heart trembles in the balance of a love sought by Charles Farrell and Charles Emmett Mack. Farrell and Mack distinguish themselves by their superb acting.

Victor Fleming, who directed the production under the supervision of B. P. Schulberg, associate Paramount producer, has made the greatest screen document of his career. The story is vitally told, and credit for its writing, goes to Hermann Hagedorn, official biographer for Theodore Roosevelt, and secretary of the Roosevelt Memorial Association.

TRANSCRIPT'S MUSINGS

"For life is gladder when we give,
And love is sweeter when we share,
And heavy loads rest lightly, too,
When we have learned to bear.

For a while our attention is turned away from Lindy and the leading presidential candidates to the little bare isle of Greenly comprising two hills connected by a barren plain. Here the brave western flyers have arrived safely, welcomed by the lonely light house keeper. What a boon it must have been to him! And the western flyers have gained much. Though they did not obtain their objective, "Mitchel Field or Heaven," yet they have shown that in spite of icy winds and falling weather it can be done. Did they have the shamrock with them?

"The stars are with the voyager
Wherever he may sail;
The moon is constant in her time,
The sun will never fail."

What has become of the County Commissioners' love of nature that they are letting the Court yard, which ought to be a thing of beauty, grow up in weeds and allowing paths across the green? Hurrying people are apt to follow a path already trod, but a "Keep off the Grass" sign will bring it to their remembrance.

The trees are there, the birds are there,
The grass is fresh and green:
Oh, Commissioners see what a little care,
Will add to the County mesne!

The men of Chestertown ought to be full of heart and good humor, as they are so often served with that which is proverbially nearest to their hearts and their well being, a good dinner.

Calendar Reform

Since the Calendar has flopped and reforms are in the air,
Let us candidly admit
There are days that might be dropped
There are days that we could spare.
For example the Ides of March.
The fateful fifteenth when the income tax
Shows us all where to come off," however lax.
And we have to show all the hidden facts.

It All Depends

Labrie—My friend, at about how much do you value the cow I saw yesterday in your field by the railroad?

Farmer—Be you the tax assessor, or has she been killed by the electric wires?

History?

The eighth grade examination paper demanded an instance of how the physical features of our country had affected our development or history. One bright lad scored perfect with the following:

"If it hadn't been for the Delaware River, Washington couldn't have crossed it."

The Antiques

Said the cabinet proud, "I once belonged
To a statesman old and great,
And he put manuscripts in me,
On grave affairs of state;"
Said the button on the cabinet's shelf,
"You've nothing on me there—
I was on General Washington's coat
When he crossed the Delaware!"

If some one should approach you and say, "How do you perspire?" or ask you if you have eaten your rice, don't be offended. These are the words by which the Egyptians and Chinese say "How do you do?" when they meet an acquaintance. All races have their own peculiar terms of salutation. On islands near the Philippines, natives grasp the foot of the person they wish to greet and gently rub their faces with it. South Sea islanders rub noses and exchange gifts while the Moors kiss each other's shoulders.

"How is your strength?" was the greeting in ancient Rome, where every man was a warrior. The Greeks, with other things than war on their minds, said "What business are you engaged in?"

The Naval Race

"Defend us from a bigger navy!"
Thus Admiral Plunkett, very grave, he
Cries out: and, oddly, so cries Borah,
Who hears all "officer talk" with horrah.

Quite right alike are Messrs. Plunkett
And Borah. Both of them have thunk it.
As each of them exclaims, by Jinkus!
"A bigger navy sure will sink us!"

CANDIDATES FILE AS DELEGATES

There will be no primary contest in this county at the coming primaries in May for Democratic delegrates to the State Convention as only three men filed as delegates. They are Charles L. Dodd, of Chestertown; Thodore J. Thompson, of Rock Hall; and Clarence Melvin, of Millington.

The situation in the Republican party is not quite as harmorious as that of the Democrats. The Republicans are having troubles of their own over the delegates to the state convention and are running two sets of delegates. The delegates known as those in favor of Mr. Jackson are Henry Brown, Joseph Boyd, John Stricklin, while the delegates for the Weller faction are Lewis S. Price, A. Parks Rasin and Richard O. Strong.

HARRIS ORCHARDS IN BLOOM

Harris Pear Orchards are in full bloom and will afford a wonderful sight for those who visit them with in the next two, weeks and it is said that the scene cannot be duplicated in the east, aside from the apple and cherry blossoms.

The Rock Point farm has 6000 tons; Still Pond Creek farm 9000 trees; Howell's Point farm 15,000 trees. The age of these trees vary from 15 to 65 years. It is reported that the export trade for Keiffers that are sprayed, cultivated and pruned, is good.

PENINSULA NEWS

Difficulty in getting men to serve as election officials has resulted in the appointment of a large number of women who will officiate at the polls at the May election.

The difference between the Chautauqua Association and the Easton committee were again considered this week and the Association was finally advised that it was thought expedient not to contract for the Chautauqua this year for the town of Easton.

Herring are running strong and this week three plants in the neighborhood of Tilghman have been cutting and packing the fish. While the run has not been as great as at other times, yet there is a sufficient quantity to keep all three plants busy. The scales of the fish are proving to be a valuable by product. The scales are washed and the resulting shine is used for coating imitation pearl buttons and necklaces.

Green Hill Country Club, Salisbury, has potponed the formal opening of the new club house from April 16th to May 9th. The opening will be a handicap golf tournament and dance. Dr. Charles Smith, formerly of Chestertown is in charge of granting handicaps.

Twenty lashes were administered to William H. Wales in the New Castle County Workhouse on Saturday. Wales pleaded guilty in Dover to having burned the barn of Gove Donovan, whose farm is between Houston and Harrington. He was sentenced to five years and eleven months in the workhouse and twenty lashes, also ordered to pay Donovan $8,000, double the value of the property he destroyed.

It is apparent that the Delaware Apple Blossom Festival which is to be held the first week in May, will be one of the largest and most spectacular celebrations ever held in that State. Definate plans are rapidly taking shape and great interest is being shown by not only the various clubs, industrial and educational organizations but by individuals both inside and outside of the State which indicates a very successful occasion.

Milton Solomon, of Washington, D. C., was burned to death, his wife suffered a fractured skull, fractured shoulder and numerous lacerations, and their companions, Misses Mildred Hurst and Meredith Palmer, suffered severe lacerations and bruises when the car in which they were riding struck a "silent policeman," skidded, overturned, caught fire and was destroyed early Sunday morning on the Elkton-Wilmington highway.

That Sudlersville boys and girls will have a 4-H Club organization of their own for the purpose of promoting farm erterprises is now fully assured. Eleven young farmers met in Cox Memorial Hall on Monday evening to hold the first meeting of its kind held in the county for some years.

In order to establish a milk station at Berlin an effort is being made to sell $15,000 worth of stock to local interests. A milk company of Philadelphia has offered to furnish the necessary machinery.

Wilson Stigger,, 23, one of five negro suspects lodged in Elkton jail in connection with an assault on Miss Katherine Carlton, 19, of Chespeake City, ended his life in his cell at an early hour Tuesday of last week by hanging.

ESSINGTON CLUB ON WORTON CREEK

The material is on the ground and work will shortly start on the constructions of moorings at the Buck Neck wharf property on Worton Creek.

This property was recently purchased from Mr. W. H. Cooper by the Essington Yacht Club, of Philadelphia.

The present plans of the club are to keep their yachts in Worton Creek and cruise on the Chesapeake Bay. It is reported that the club will build a large club house in the near future.

PARENTS DAY AT W. C.

The first Parents Day at Washington College to which the public is invited, will be held next Thursdlay, April 26th.

The program will include the planting on the campus of a grand son seedling of the famous Washington Elm by the Old Kent Chapter, Daughers of the American Revolution. The seedling will be presented by Mrs. James H. Dorsey, of Baltimore, vice-chairman of the national D. A. R. committee on Historic Trees in America. Mr. Alfred A. Doffel, of State Department of Forestry, will give a short talk.

The program will start at 2.30 p. m. in William Smith Hall with an address by Rev. W. Herbert Burk, D. D., Rector Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, Pa., at 3.30 p. m., the meeting will adjourn to the campus where the seedling will be presented and planted.

The invitation to attend has been accepted by a large number of parents from many distant points and indications point to a big day at the old institution.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS INSTITUTE TO MEET HERE

The first annual meeting of The tern Shore Institute, of Public affairs will be held at William Smith Hall, Washington College, on Saturday, May 5th under the auspices of the Chestertown League of Women Voters and the Washington College Young Women Voters League. Among the speakers scheduled for this all-day meeting are Mr. Drew Pearson, who attended the Pan American Conference at Havanna; Mrs. Laura Puffer Morgan representing the American Association of University Women, a Chinese Woman Student-Chi-hang Kiner; Dr. Eshter M. Dole, Prof. Wm. R. Howell, Mr. Williams of the Baltimore Sun, Miss Lavinia Engle and others. This Institute is open to the people of the Eastern Shore, and delegations are expected from the Salisbury Normal School and other High Schools. Individuals or representatives of any organizations are invited to attend.

A subscription luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. Reservations may be sent to Miss Nellie Saunders at Washington College.

SHORE COMMISSIONERS MEET

The County Commissiours Association of the Eastern Shore held their annual spring meeting at Cambridge, Monday, April 23. The address of welcome was made by former Governor Emerson C. Harrington.

At the morning session the subject of School tax Rate was thoroughly discussed as a matter of unfinished business. A representative of Motor Commission gave a most interesting talk on Taxation and Assessment of Automobiles.

The two most important talks and discussions of the morning meeting dealt with slag roads and gravel roads.

The afternoon meeting was devoted first to a visit of the Eastern Shore State Hospital and then to the discussion of a Shore Almshouse. A number of well-known speakers addressed the meeting on this subject. One of the most interesting talks of the day was made by Dr. Frank Keating. There is a strong likelihood that the County Commissioners of the Eastern Shore will petition the next legislation for a centrally located almshouse for the entire Shore.

John W. Mumford, of Worcester county, was elected President of the Association for the coming year.

Commissioners S. J. Johnson and Charles Wood represented Kent county at the meeting. Messrs. Thomas Davis, James Newnam and Simon Westcott also attended.

Ira Hayman, 20, head bookkeeper for Feldman Brothers, furniture dealers, of Salisbury, and honor man of the 1925 Class at Wicomico High School, fatally shot himself about 5.30 o'clock last Saturday night, just before closing time, and died a few minutes later at the Peninsula General Hospital where he was rushed.

GRAND JURY REPORT

To the Honorable Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent County, Md.

The grand jury for the April term of the Circuit Court of Kent County, State of Maryland, 1928, beg leave to report the following on completion of their labors: We have been in session four days, have examined seventy-eight witnesses, made 35 presentments and found 31 true bills.

We visited the jail and found it to be clean, insofar as it can be, owing to the very unsanitary condition of the building, its age and its crowded condition. It is also the opinion of this jury that our county jail is in such a condition that we feel that all possible favorable publicity should be given to the coming referendum on the bonds for rebuilding and repairing the jail to the end that the public approval be given to this issue. It is also the opinion of this jury that the public use of slot machines and other devicies known as games of chance be discontinued in this county, and that the proper steps be taken to see that this is done.

It has also been brought to the attention of this jury that the court house is becoming overcrowded and this jury recommends that steps be taken to either rebuild or remodel the same.

This jury extends its appreciation to the Honorable court, the states attorney, the sheriff, the clerk and all other officials for their courtesy and the help extended to us during this session.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Romie Skirven, foreman.
S. Thomas Pippin, Secty.

Laurence B. Towers vs. Moargaret McGill and others, administrators of Alex McGill, for the collection of a note of $1000.00. The defence claims the note is a forgery. This case was removed from Talbot County and was on trial when this paper went to press.

WEDDING NOTES

JARVIS—CALDWELL

As the twilight shades were softly falling over the little town of Galena a very pretty wedding took place at the M. E. Church Saturday, April 14. When Miss Estella Jarvis daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Jarvis became the bride of Mr. Edward Caldwell youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Caldwell, of Kennedyville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ivanhoe Willis in the presence of many relatives and friends at 6 p. m. At the appointed hour the sweet strains of Lohengrins wedding March which was sweetly rendered by Mrs. Samuel W. Caldwell, sister-in-law of the groom, announced the coming of the bridal party, who preceded by flower girl little Mabel Jarvis who wore pink georgette and carried a basket of pink sweet peas and fern, followed by groom and his best man Mr. Samuel W. Caldwell a brother. The church was beautifully decorated with potted ferns and plants. The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of white georgette with hat and shoes to match and carried white roses and fern. The maid of honor Miss Lillian Atwell, of Sassafras was dressed in orchid georgette with hat to match and carried a bonquet of pink roses.

"Oh Promise Me" was played also very softly during ceremony by Mrs. Samuel Caldwell, whose gown was mother goose georgette with hat and shoes to match.

The ushers were: Mr. Melvin Jarvis and Mr. William Umflit, of Wilmington. Reception was held immediately after at the home of the brides parents. At a late hour amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple left for their home near Galena. Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

TUCKER—SPARKS

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Saturday at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hicks Tucker, when their daughter, Miss Dorothy Rolph Tucker, bookkeeper in the Third National Bank, became the bride of Holton S. Sparks, prominent young business man of Centreville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The only attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Seward, of Centreville, the latter a sister of the bride.

HAWKINS—DERRINGER

Miss Mable Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hawkins, of Jacksonville, Florida, and Lieutenant Harry Hurtt Derringer, of Chestertown, were married at the church of the Good Sheppard, Jacksonville, at eight o'clock Thursday evening.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. They will reside in Newport, R. I. this summer where Lieutenant Derringer will be stationed.

H. M. BAKER ON COMMERCE BOARD

At a meeting of the Board of directors of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening of this week, Mr. H. M. Baker, of Quaker Neck, was elected a member of that board.

Mr. Baker is a progressive turkey raiser in Kent couny and has also been connected with various chambers of Commerce for a number of years. He will represent the seventh district in the Kent County Chamber of Commerce.

The Board of Directors also decided to keep the office of the Chamber open in the morning and afternoon, the hours being from 10 to 12 in the morning and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon.

To keep linen white while it is laid away, place an old sheet dipped in strong bluing water over it.
