Katherine Rapp Gray
vs.
Herbert Ashmead Gray

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity, No. 2510

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff, a resident of Kent County, Maryland, from the Defendant, a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 25th day of April 1921, she was married to her husband, Herbert Ashmead Gray, at Atlantic City, State of New Jersey, by Rev. J. M. Linton, a duly ordained Minister of the Gospel, and resided with him at Atlantic City, State of New Jersey, until April 18th, 1924.

2. That though the conduct of your oratrix towards her husband, the said Herbert Ashmead Gray, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Herbert Ashmead Gray, has without just cause or reason abandoned her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your Oratrix and the said defendant had no children born to them from said marriage.

4. That the said Herbert Ashamed is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and whose whereabouts at the time of filing of this Bill of Complaint is unknown to your Oratrix.

5. That your Oratrix is a resident of Betterton, Kent County, Maryland, where she has lived since the 1st day of June, 1925.

It is thereupon, this 22nd day of March, 1928, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 23rd day of April next, give notice to the said Herbert Ashmead Gray, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 7th day of May next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

A VEST POCKET ESSAY ON CONVERSATION

Some goofy prophet once voiced the belief that conversation is dirt cheap. We fear this bard of small renown was nothing but a simple clown for while this tale might oft apply, most men will say that talk comes high. There's many a man who would forsooth, if he but dared to tell the truth, proclaim the simple words "I do," have cost him many a pretty sou. If talk is cheap, why do we weep when at the doctors' bills we peep? These chaps for all their sage advice, charge fees that turn our hearts to ice and make us swear for nevermore to darken any sawbone's door. The lawyers speak of moots and things from out the law's majestic springs while poor goofs pay the bills and costs and wonder why their claims are lost. The brokers tell us when to buy the stocks that pile our profits high, but now and then they steer us wrong and sell us for a measly song. So while some claim that talk is cheap, we find that most kinds cost a heap and oft resolve to close our ears and turn our back on all our peers.

So on and on we thus might bleat without our message to complete but really there is some advice that costs you not a heavy price. Long eons have we spilled the dope of how and why you need not mope when cholera taps your neighbor's door and lays his pigs upon the floor. Long eons have we sung as best we can, the features of the Maryland Plan and told you oft of how to stay the thing that takes your pigs away. And oft no doubt you squawk and swear and say our stuff is all hot air but guard three things lest you proclaim that raising pigs gives you a pain. Feed not, lest you regret perhaps, anything that might contain pork scraps, for bugs and germs pigs often find in bones or scraps or bacon rind. When someone has a pig to sell, be quite sure that it is well before you take a chance absurb and add it to your healthy herd. And one thing more we have to state and urge you all to vaccinate when cholera near your farm is found and hogs are dying all around. Thus ends this tale of artless guise, a message for the farmer wise; a guide to wisdom and to wealth, to keep your pigs in buxom health.
