Chestertown M. E. Church

W. F. Corkran, Pastor. "Mother's Day," is a delightful memory. The program in the Sunday School was fine. The Singers of the old hymns that our mothers loved, by the congregation, was soul stiring. The Song-O-Logue in the evening was something new and was a fitting climax of a great day. The attendance at the Epworth League and the program rendered showed a great interest. That is all past.

What of to-morrow? The Sunday School will meet at 10 a. m. now is the time for special interest in the school. Lets all be there. 11 a. m. every member of choir should be in place. The pastor will preach. 6.45 p. m. The Epworth League in charge of the new officers, a fine bunch of young people. 7.30 public worhip, preaching by pastor.

MUSICALE PLEASES AUDIENCE

The lovers of good music have every reason to be grateful to the College Authorities and Miss Louise Russell for giving them such a concert as was given last Friday evening, May 11, at William Smith Hall. The pieces on the piano by the Misses Chapman, Titsworth, Ayres, Simpers, Smith and Mr. Paul Pippin were very fine and much enjoyed by the audience. The visitors, Miss Alma Metcalfe on the Violin, Miss Lois R. Stone, on the Cello and the vocal selections by Miss Loretta Lee delighted their hearers and excited much enthusiasm and applause.

The visitors were entertained at the home of W. F. Russell, Jr., at the close of the musicale.
