BETTERTON

Betterton opened its doors last Saturday evening to the summer guests. All of the hotels and cottages, ice cream saloons and the dance hall and bowling alleys are opened for the season.

Beginning tomorrow the summer schedule of the Methodist church will begin Sunday School at 10 a. m. song service at 7.45 p. m. with the preaching service at eight p. m.

The Sunday School picnic of the Methodist Church will be held at Tolchester next Thursday, June 20th, starting from the church at ten a. m.

Miss Dowena Shane, National organizer of the W. C. T. U. gave a splendid talk in the M. E. Church Sunday afternoon and at Still Pond in the evening. After the service a joint society of the men and women of Betterton and Still Pond was organized with Mrs. John Boulden, as president.

Mr. Clarence Smith, Miss Ruth Brice and Miss Anna Wilmer are among the graduates of the Chestertown High School this week. We congratulate them upon their success.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crew, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owens and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith spent the week end at Atlantic City.

Mrs. William Davis and daughter Hallye Mae, of Phoenixville, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Crew.

Mrs. George Moore entertained the members of the Ladies Aid Society at her home on Friday evening. Plans are being made for the bazaar to be held in the summer.

Miss Florence Cornelius is enjoying a weeks vacation with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Talbott Brice is recuperating from an operation of appendicitis at his home.
