RAM SALE BIG SUCCESS

STOCKTON STARTT BUYS GOOD ONES

The 3rd. Annual Ram Sale fostered by the Maryland Stockmen's Association was held at Centerville on Tuesday, July 16th, and was a big success in every way. Forty-five fine registered Hampshire and Shropshire rams were sold at an average of nearly $60, which speaks for the quality of the offering, the spirited bidding and the appreciation on the part of the sheepmen of the importance of good breeding, and good individuality in the breeding rams. The price range was from $31 to $131.

H. Stockton Startt, of Chestertown, bought five of the good rams. He bid only on the good ones. Jim Hall, of Church Hill, bought the top priced ram also one other good one. Mr. Page Gale, of Rock Hall vicinity, purchased a Shropshire ram from M. C. Sherman, of Queenstown.

Following the sale, a lamb infested with internal parasites was killed and opened to reveal the type of worms found in sheep. The lamb revealed by its scrubby, unthrifty, undersized appearance that it was infested. The treatment for the different kinds of parasites was explained. The demonstration held the attention of a large crowd of interested sheepmen.

Attendance was estimated at 3000. The sale was well handled, much credit is due K. A. Clark, Extension Animal Husbandry Specialist, who was sales manager; B. E. Carmichael, Secretary of the Maryland Stockman's Association and to County Agent Grubb, who perfected many of the local arrangements for handling the sale.

PENINSULA NEWS

A search of colonial records discloses the interesting fact that Shipping Creek, on Kent Island, is the oldest port in Maryland and with the exception of Jamestown and Plymouth, probably the oldest of the English ports in all North America. Nearly three centuries ago when the most of North America was an unexplored wildersness, great English ships from overseas sailed up the Chesapeake past scores of picturesque Indian villages and docked in Shipping Creek to land stores for the young colony there. In exchange the Islanders loaded for the return voyage thousands of furs to be sold in Europe.

Beginning the first of the coming month, Cecil county will have a full time health officer for the first time in its history. Dr. Clinton A. Kane, son of Thomas Kane, of Perryville, has been appointed to the position. He will come to Cecil county from Talbot county, where he has filled a similar position for the past eighteen months. His headquarters will be in Elkton.

At the regular weekly meeting of the directors of the Queen Anne's Bank, Tuesday, J. Louis Rhodes, of Queenstown, was elected president of the institution. Mr. Rhodes has been vice-president of the bank for a number of years and succeeds Walter T. Wright, who resigned as president several weeks ago.

Three horses, 19 sheep and four mules were killed and three farm buildings were burned to the ground Sunday evening as the result of the severe electrical storm.

At Overton the farm of James F. Boyles, a bolt of lightning struck and killed a horse and set fire to a stable. The flames then spread to a granary, both buildings, being burned to the ground. The Centreville Fire Department prevented the blaze from spreading to other buildings.

At the Bryan farm, near Carmichael, owned by Dr. W. H. Fisher, 19 sheep in a flock of 37 grazing in a field, were killed by lightning.

Lightning was also blamed for a fire on the farm of Charles L. Goodhand, near Centreville, in which a barn was burned to the ground.

Two horses and four mules were struck by lightning and killed on the farm of Howard Adams near Longwood, seven miles east of Easton.
