CHAUTAUQUA STARTS NEXT MONDAY

PROGRAM INCLUDES AMUSING AND INTELLECTUAL FEATURES

Swarthmore Chautauqua will open in Chestertown next Monday, July 22 and continue for 4 days.

MONDAY

Afternoon

The Faubels—Mirth, Melody, and Nonsense.

The Faubel Entertainers bring you a program of continuous surprises, that run from the sublime to the ridiculous in a never-ceasing array of variety in mirth and music. The program features wholesome FUN, combined with dramatic interpretations so clearly arranged that you are whirled along in a vehicle of delight from the first curtain rise to its fall.

Evening

Around the world on one leg—Told by Ellery Walter, "The Supreme Adventure."

If he had two feet he would have gone to Mars! As it is he only had one, but in spite of the handicap Ellery Walter, former president of the class of 1928 at the University of Washington, has crowded more blood-racing experiences into his life than commonly falls to the lot of a half dozen men. At the age of 22 he had traveled over 70,000 miles which included practically every interesting spot in the world.

Sweltering days in Mexican oil fields, hours spent under romantic skies of Hawaii, and thrill upon thrill in the Fiji Islands, Egypt, and Australia these form only part of the wealth of background which is Ellery Walter's.

The Faubels will also entertain in the evening.

TUESDAY

Afternoon

"Open doors to Fascinating worlds"—A Timely Lecture by Dr. Frank Bohn.

A picture on the wall can be a window into the world and a book case, a door. Travel may be accomplished through the printed page. Adventure in far off jungles can follow a day on a poultry farm. You may come in from in from the farm or shop and spend an evening climbing Mt. Everest. The pleasure of such experience never dulls.

Mr. Cecil will tell us, in an interesting way, what books may mean in our lives and how we may add zest, pleasure and enchantment to our lives through reading.

Evening

"The Romancers"—A three-act fantastic comedy at Chautauqua.

The Beechwood Players will present this famous fantastic comedy, by Edmond Rostund, author of "Cyrano Bergerac," "L'Aiglon," and "Chanticleer."

This delightful comedy was first played in Paris by the late Sarah Bernhardt, and later in England and the United States by Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

WEDNESDAY

Afternoon

The famous Boston Musicians Quintet—Artists of International Repute.

These talented artists are under the direction of Frederick Louis Mahn, a life long student of music. Mr. Mahn received his training from famous masters in Europe, and has been for years first violinist in the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

This program of instrumental and vocal music will meet with the approval of the most discriminating music critics. You are assured a real musical treat.

Evening

Tom Skeyhill— Soldier, Lecture, Writer.

Blinded and bayoneted while serving in the Anzac Army in the World War, he miraculously recovered his sight in 1918. Since then he has visited and lectured in every European country and has spoken in every state in the United States and every province in Canada.

Tom Skeyhill, in his dramatic, inimitable way, will hold you spellbound. His realistic word pictures will thrill you. There is no one on the lecture platform more capable of telling the story of Mussilina than Tom Skeyhill.

THURSDAY

Afternoon

The members of Junior Chautauqua will perform in the Pageant, "Tails and Trails."

Thursday Evening

Skidding

"Skidding" is a diverting comedy-drama of love and politics. A visit will initiate you as guests into the Hardy household. For two hours and a half you will live with these good people and be an eye witness of their family life, which at times is none too complacent; but at all times delightfully humorous.

The story is American throughout. Its locale is a western state where Judge Hardy is up for renomination in the district court. The judge is one of those sturdy old Americans to whom honor means more than it apparently does to our modern public officers. He refuses to barter his honor for nomination and is defeated; but in defeat is compensated by advancement to the Supreme Court, which had been his life-long ambition, and which comes when his fortunes are at the lowest ebb.

Also Molarsky's Marionettes—A show for the children and the parents will enjoy.

Junior Chautauqua Pagent—"Tales and Trails."

Come and see these queer little folks dance and go through all sorts of queer antics. They will sing and talk, laugh and cry. You will rub your eyes with astonishment; and take the second look to see whether they have deceived you.

BETTERTON

The seventh annual registered trap shooting tournament of the Betterton Gun Club was held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week with a good attendance. The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church, as usual served lunch on the grounds.

The Port Deposit Moonlight excursions have begun and will come each Monday evening. They have brought large crowds both evenings so far.

The Chestertown Fire Company responded promptly on Saturday last when an alarm was sent in that Mr. Edward Smiths house was on fire. Fortunately, the fire was out before the engines arived but the community appreciate the readiness of the firemen in coming to the rescue so quickly and so graciously.

Mrs. Peter H. Taylor was taken to Easton Hospital on Sunday, suffering from an infected foot, and from which she is now improving.

Mrs. O'Neil, with her mother and her daughter, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Crew this week.

Mrs. Susie MacDonald, of Baltimore, is spending some time with Mrs. Arthur Brice. Mr. Reese Crew, of Philadelphia, is the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crew.

Mrs. Emmitt Crew, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis.

Mrs. Ernest Mickey and daughter, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice.

The Betterton Ice and Electric Plant was sold this week to a company in Philadelphia. It will remain under the same management until September.

Production of Maple Sugar Natural Wonder

Sugar is a purely vegetable production, as in common use, though largely mineral, carbon-hydrate, in its composition. The sun has much to do with its formation; though, as the beet crop proves, not as much as was formerly thought to be the case. We know carbon best in the form of coal. Some prefer it in its purest form as diamonds. It is in one form or another one of the commonest things in nature. How it gets up into a maple tree, it would be hard to say. "Out of nothing, nothing comes," and no man would care to claim that the tree makes it, in the face of that dictum. If the roots search for and having found it in the soil, pass it up through the sap, they are very clever, or parts of a wonderfully clever machine. It is found in the combustion of vegetable, and of some mineral matter, and there may be intimate connection between sunshine in the tree tops and the searchings of the rootlets which gets it into the mounting sap. We shall find it all out some day.—Montreal Family Herald.

Subscription to the Transcript per annum.

Through the generosity of Mrs. Helena S. Raskob numerous Queen Anne's County flower lovers have had an opportunity to obtain valuable and desirable plants and the Queen Anne's County Health Association has added a sizeable sum to its treasury.

Mrs. Raskob gave the Health Association several truck loads of particularly desirable plants which were sold at a-penny-a-plant.—Centreville Observer.

During the heavy electrical storm which swept over Easton and Talbot county Sunday evening lightning struck and killed two horses and four mules of Howard Adams on his farm near Longwood, about seven miles from Easton.

The animals were standing under a shed in the barnyard, which was set afire, but the downpour extinguished it before it reached the barn and stables.
