PUBLIC LIBRARY REDECORATED

The Chestertown Public Library has been completly renovated and redecorated. Leonard C. Needles had charge of the wall decorations and excuted same in a skilled and satisfactory manner. The patrons of this Library certainly owe a vote of thanks to the ladies that labored so hard and faithfully to make this room one of the delightful places of our town.

The use of the room is donated by the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company and that company has also donated the interior decorations that have just been completed.

CHURCH SET ASIDE NEW MONEY

FEDERAL COUNCIL URGES DEDICATION OF CURRENCY TO MISSIONS

CHURCHES ASK FOR NEW MONEY

Chicago—At the suggestion of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, church members throughout the country have been asked to dedicate out of the new currency recently issued by the United States government, the first new bill received by setting it aside for the mission work of the churches.

In many churches there will be a service for the dedication of the new money on Sunday, September 8 The Federal Council is also recommending that a timely message be given by the preachers of the country on the Christian use of material possessions.

The suggestion was originally made by Dr. Ralph A. Ward, executive secretary of the World Service of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

PERSONALS

Second Lieutenant J. D. Guthrie of the 318th Infantry Army Reserve which organization is training the 1900 CATC candidates at Fort Eustis this week, lives at Chestertown, Maryland. Lieutenant Guthrie was given his commission as a Reserve Officer in June 1926. In civil life he is a salesman for the American Agricultural Chemical Co.

Rev. and Mrs. John White, and daughter, Miss Jane White, also two sons, Joseph and William, will leave next week for Plymouth, Vermont, where they will spend the month of August.

Mrs. Scott Beck and little daughter, Bettee, are visiting Mrs. Beck's sister, Mrs. Skinner, in New York. Mrs. Skinner has just gone through a successful operation.

WEDDING NOTES

O nWednesday, July 17th at 12 o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joel McGinnes, near Chestertown, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their daughter, Miss Clara Maywood McGinnes and Mr John Williamson, of Baltimore, were uunited the holy matrimony by Rev. Sidney Bradley, of Crumpton, Md.

About twenty five guests were present. After the ceremony luncheon was served. Then the bridal couple left on their honeymoon train for a weeks stay at Atlantic City.

PROPOSE KENT ISLAND FERRY

According to information received this week a new automobile ferry company will be interested in constructing and operating a ferry line from the Kent Island Shore to the vicinity of Sandy Point early next spring.

The company already has made a preliminary investigation of the possibilities of the route and will apply for a permit, it is said, upon expiration of the permit granted last winter to the Claiborne-Annapolis line. The permit was granted to the Claiborne-Annapolis Company after that concern had stated it expected to construct a canal across Kent Island within one year from the date of the permit.

MRS. JACOBS MUCH IMPROVED

Mrs. Cora Jacobs, of Phoenixville, Pa., who fell from an auomobile driven by her husband near Still Pond, Sunday afternoon, is much improved, according to a report from the Elkton hospital yesterday.

According to statments made by both Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs to Maryland State Police on Thursday, Mrs. Jacobs was sitting on the rear seat of the automobile reading a magazine and as the car rounded a curve in the road, she fell against the car door, which was not properly latched and opened throwing her out on the concrete road.

After receiving first aid treatment, she was rushed to Elkton hospital in the Kent county ambulance.

SHORE POTATO CROP

With possibly 2,000 carloads of potatoes yet to move out of Northampton and Accomac counties, the two Eastern Shore of Virginia counties have marketed 17,000 carloads of potatoes this season, which will make a total season's potato yield of 19,000 carloads, or 3,500,000 barrels, valued at more than $11,000,000.

NO UNEMPLOYMENT ON SHORE

Little or no unemployment existed in Maryland in June, according to the monthly survey of the United States Employment Service.

A well balanced supply and demand was reported on the Eastern Shore.

The report described conditions throughout the State as satisfactory in all lines of industry.

IN MEMORIUM

COLLISON—In loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Merritt A., who died four years ago July 28, 1925.

There is someone who misses you sadly
And finds the time long since you went;
There is someone who thinks of you always
And tries to be brave and content.

Dear Merritt you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more;
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

We do not forget you, nor do we intend;
We think of always and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be.
But dear to our memory you ever will be.

Your smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall,
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.

MRS. FRANK COLLISON.
