INDUSTRIAL SURVEY OF CHESTERTOWN

At a meeting of the Chestertown Mercantile Section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening of this week, the firm of Craig P. Gilbert, Inc., of Washington, D. C., was employed to make an industrial survey of Chestertown.

The survey will tabulate all the assets of the town that will be attractive to the establishing of industries here, and the surveying company will place the survey before industrial concerns that are seeking to establish plants away from the large cities.

The survey has been made possible through the cooperation of the Mercantile Section, the Commissioners of Chestertown and the local banks.

DEATHS

William R. Vansant died at his late home on Mill street Chestertown Wednesday afternoon, September 18th, aged 79 years. For a number of years he was a farmer in Kent county and in 1906 entered into the men's clothing business in Chestertown under the name of Vansant and Newsome. The business developed into one of the outstanding Mercantile establishments in Chestertown and in 1928 poor health compelled his retiring and he sold his interest to Mr. Albert Wheat. He was an outstanding citizen of the community, he lived a religious life and was an example of a law abiding citizen. He was a member of the Board of Stewards of Christ M. P. Church for a number of years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ella Vansant, and the following children; Mrs. Etta A. Nicholson, Mrs. Nelly R. French, C. Paul Vansant, of Wildwood, N. J.; and Wm. Galen Vansant, of Chatham, Va.: also 9 grandchildren and 2 great grand-children.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Mill street yesterday, Friday, at 2.30 p. m., conducted by Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, and Rev. J. L. Ward, a former pastor. Interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were: Messrs. C. N. Satterfield, Fred G. Usilton, Wm. A. Wheatley, Edward Newsome, Robert Huey and Rollison Baxter. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

From the Wilmington Every Evening.

"Some persons' lives are built upon a desire to be of service to their fellow man. Often those who have this outstanding trait willingly make sacrifices in order to give of themselves for the benefit of others. The Rev. George T. Alderson, whose sudden death yesterday saddened our community, was an exemplification of the type of citizenry. As a Methodist Episcopal clergyman, long a member of the Wilmington Conference, he had exerted this influence for good in every community in which he had served. The most abundant fruit of his labor, perhaps, manifested itself in Wilmington, where, of course, the opportunity was greater than elsewhere in the conference area.

Dr. Alderson had been pastor of Asbury Church for a number of years. But his work at the head of that congregation, as aggressive as it was, and which of itself was productive of good results, represented only part of his loral activities. He was keenly interested in various undertakings that had to do with succoring those who, through adversity, or for other reasons, were in need of a helping hand. In other ways, also, he had interested himself in public welfare and was always ready to give personal attention to any matters of this nature that appealed to him as worthy.

Dr. Alderson's earnestness of purpose and kindly disposition did much to inspire confidence in the various undertakings with which he was associated. In his death the community loses a good citizen and the Methodist church an ardent champion and dependable, earnest director."

Surrounded by flowers and loved ones Mrs. Martha A. Barnard was laid to rest Tuesday, September 18th. Interment was at Still Pond cemetery, Rev. W. D. Short, officiating, assisted by Rev. O. G. Robinson. Funeral services had been held Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Collins, Summit, New Jersey, where Mrs. Barnard had made her home for many years past.

Grief seemed out of place at Mrs. Barnard's going; rather the joy of having known and loved such a character pervaded the atmosphere. Mrs. Barnard was in her 96th year. Besides the many friends who will always cherish her memory her family appreciate more fully than others could the heritage that is left them in the Christian life Mother lived.

Surviving Mrs. Barnard are her children, Mrs. W. F. Collins, Stamford, Conn.; Mrs. E. A. Evans, Cheswold, Delaware; Dr. William E. Barnard, New York City; Louis M. Barnard, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Mrs. Walter H. Collins, Summit, N. J.; also 11 grand-children, and 16 great-grandchildren. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Rev. Mr. Alderson died on Wednesday evening at his home in Wilmington. He preceded the Rev. Omar Jones as pastor of the M. E. Church here, and has left behind him many friends.

Mrs. Mary A. Price, wife of Raymond L. Price, died at Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, on Thursday, September 12th, age 33. She was the daughter of Arthur and Emma Urie. She leaves four children, Gladys, Freeda, Lorraine and Culbrie. Funeral was held Sunday, September 15, at her late home in Piney Neck. Interment at Wesley Chapel, Rev. Mr. Barrett, officiating. Bearers were: Groom Price, Hugh Price, Adrion Price, John Capes, A. C. Urie and Jesse Urie. C. L. Dodd, Undertaker.

IN MEMORIAM

BRYDEN—In loving remembrance of my dear husband, S. T. Bryden, who died 6 years ago, August 4th, 1923.

Six years have passed, dear husband,
Since Angels came for you
Yet through the most of the long years,
Your face came smiling through.

Each lonely hour that we have spent
Is woven through and through
With golden threads of memory,
Dear husband, just for you.

Gone to that light that shines so fair,
Gone from the earth of sorrow and care,
Resting those hands that did their best
Gone dear husband gone to rest.

Rest in peace, your cares are ended,
Rest in peace your work is done,
You are gone where those that love,
You will be coming one by one.
By his loving wife, Mary.

MASLIN—In loving remembrance of my dear daughter, Susie Maslin, who died seven years ago, September 28, in the year of 1922.

My thughts are wondering when day light fades
To the land of long ago.
And the memory paints the scene of old
In the gold of the twilight glow.

I seem to see in the soft, dim light
A face I loved the best,
And I think of her when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far off West.
By her loving mother, Mary D. Bryden
