LOCAL MATTER

—A Hollowe'en party will be held in Emmanuel P. E. Church, October 31.

—A masked Hallowe'en party will be held at the club house of the Chester River Yacht and County Club on Saturday evening, November 2nd.

—There were many tons of tomatoes shipped from this county this week. This has been the longest tomato season on record here, as the weather has been unusually mild during October.

—Many schools in the county were closed yesterday due to the meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association in Baltimore on Friday and Saturday of this week.

—The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company band will give a concert in Church Hill next Tuesday during the weeks celebration of the opening of the Community Hall in that town.

—Chestertown Council, No. 58, Daughters of America, will hold a masked Hallowe'en social at fraternal hall next Monday evening at 7.30 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

—The Chestertown Fire Co. enjoyed an oyster scald at Gill Bros. Ice Cream factory Monday evening of this week. The oysters were furnished by ex-sheriff W. W. Goodman, in appreciation of the firemen saving his home at Quaker Neck wharf some time ago.

—The American Legion, Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, are planning an appropriate Armistice Day celebration on November 11th. On Tuesday, November 12th, the local post will hold a banquet in the auditorium of Chestertown High School at which time the State Commander and other state officials will be present.

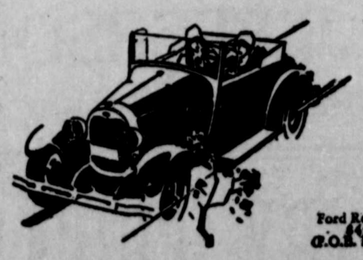

The local ambulance, while returning from Easton hospital on Tuesday of this week arrived at the scene of an accident at Longwood, in which an automobile, driven by a colored man had ran into two automobiles parked in front of the school house. The ambulance returned to Easton with two small boys who were injured in the crash.

—An ear of yellow corn measuring 12 1-2 inches long, 8 3-4 inches in circumference and weighing 1 1-2 lbs. was sent us from the farm of Colonel Ivers D. Leanard, on Lankford Bay. The farm which produced the corn is being tiled by Mr. William Arring, Mr. Arring has a fine crop, which is rather unusual for this year, as most corn crops throughout the county are short.
