DEATHS

Mr. Charles W. Kibler, Sr., died at his home on Queen street, Chestertown, Thursday morning November 14th, after a long illness, aged 71 years.

He was raised in Queen Anne's county and was a student at Washington College. He was catcher for their baseball team at that time.

He came to Chestertown about 1897 and was the pioneer of the grain business in this community from which he, with his two sons, branched out in the grain, coal, phosphate and tomato business until they made one of the leading enterprises of the community.

He leaves two sons, J. Thomas Kibler and Charles Kibler, of Chestertown, one sister, Mrs. Harry Newnam, of Baltimore, and two nieces, Miss Edith Harley, of Chestertown, and Miss Lula Harley, of Baltimore, also one nephew, Mr. A. S. Harley, of New York.

Funeral services will be held at his late home at Chestertown at 11 a. m. Saturday. Conducted by Rev. J. H. Wright.

The bearers will be Messrs. John Newnam, D. Thomas Hurlock, Harry Tucker, Hicks Tucker, P. A. M. Brooks and Dr. G. Allen Jarman.

Interment in Church Hill cemetery. W. T. Hicks in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Henry Hooper Klinefelter, prominent agriculturist of the Rich Neck section of Queen Anne's county near Chestertown, died at his late residence, Sterlingford, on November 11th, at 9.45 p. m. He was born August 29th, 1858, his parents being the late VanVert and Sarah Hooper Klinefelter. He married Miss Emily Hendriks Ford, daughter of the late Budd S. Ford on April 20, 1892, who survives him. He is also survived by the following brothers and sister, William E. Hooper Klinefelter, VanVert Klinefelter and Mrs. Albert C. Tolson, all of Baltimore.

Although he had been ill at his home for several weeks, his death came as a great shock to his friends and relatives. He was a devoted member of the Chestertown M. E. Church, being a trustee and also a member of the official board. Up to the time of his recent illness, he was actively engaged in the management of a large track of farm land in Queen Anne's county.

Funeral services were held on Thursday at 2 p. m., at the home conducted by Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran and Rev. Harry Wright, interment was made in Chester cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. W. B. Copper, W. W. Hubbard, Mark Creasy, W. E. Klinefelter, Jr., Bassom King Kennady and Hamilton E. Hooper. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The funeral of Mr. Frank B. Jester, Sr., of Rock Hall, was held at the Rock Hall Catholic Church, Monday morning, November 11th. The bearers were: Messrs. Charles E. and William H. McKee, Frank Asher, William Jester, Albert Baxter, and John Wilson.

Those who attended from out of the county were. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Chase, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Asher of Bengis, Baltimore county, Mr. and Mrs. William Jester, Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connelly and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pennington, Mrs. Roger Wilson, all of Wilmington, Miss Meda Barton, Mrs. Marvin Barton and Mr. Edward Barton, of Centreville.

Mrs. Sarah J. Long, widow of the late Charles Long, died at her home in Williamstown, New Jersey, on November 12. She was formerly a resident of Worton Point, this county.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Mollie Leaverton, Charles Long, George Long, Mrs. Laura Seney, Mrs. Bessie Joiner, Mrs. Annie Kernan and Joseph Long.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christ M. P. Church. Interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Emily Rodney Davis, wife of James Davis, died at her home in Baltimore Sunday evening. The deceased was a daughter of the late John Rodney, of Rock Hall. Her husband and a son, Arnold, survive. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday evening and the remains brought to Rock Hall on Wednesday morning on the Tolchester boat and interred in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. Mrs. Davis was a member of Rock Hall M. E. Church and Rock Hall Lodge No. 25, Daughters of America. Their services were held at the grave and the bearers were members of the order.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Dorf moved on Wednesday from the Bringman house to the Aldridge house on East High street. Mr. Dorf recently bought this property.
